STATE SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS ZONE LAW!

Claims Aircraft Key To Power In Next War!

REAR ADMIRAL SIMS SAYS WARSHIPS HELPLESS

Opposes Unified Air Service And Places Emphasis On Use of Submarines

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Taking sharp issue with high-ranking navy officers, Rear Admiral William S. Sims, retired, told the House aircraft committee this afternoon that battleships are obsolete as a fighting force.

"The airplane has made the battleship obsolete," Sims flatly declared. "If I were to build a batte fleet I would not have a single battleship," said Sims. "I would replace battleships with airplane carriers."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Aircraft will be the key to power in the next war, Rear-Admiral William S. Sims, retired, today told the House aircraft committee. Sims urged development of a great air fleet by the United States. He assailed the "conservatives in the navy who are holding out for the precious battleship."

Recent bombing tests on battleships have demonstrated the great power of airplanes as attacking units, Sims declared.

"As a weapon of defense, the airplane is vitally important to peace," he said. "We should never consent to a limitation of airplanes before having a force necessary to repulse an attack by a fleet from overseas. Command of the air would enable us to destroy an attacking fleet."

Sims' opinions were contained in a statement which he said he prepared in 1923, after a thorough study of the value of airplanes and battleships.

"No fleet can operate against a power controlling the air," Sims said. "It can be stated as a fact that control of the air, in my opinion, is a means of control of any naval fleet operating in that same area.

"The Panama canal can be made secure by having at its entrance many more airplanes than can be brought over by an enemy fleet," he added.

"That would prevent, not only landing of troops, but bombardment of the canal as well."

Sims warned the nation not to be alarmed over rapid airplane building by European countries.

"No airplanes yet built can operate far enough away from their home bases to endanger us," said Sims. "The only dan-

SEEKS COLORADO PACT'S APPROVAL

Six Signatory States Would Act Under Terms of Joint Resolution

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Approval of a Colorado river pact with only six signatory states and excluding Arizona will be asked in a joint resolution presented the California Legislature by Assemblyman A. C. Finney, Imperial county, and Senator Ralph Swing, San Bernardino. It is pointed out today that Colorado state has already taken such action.

The resolution also makes reservations protecting present water rights until storage has been provided in the Colorado river pact, said Mr. Finney.

Turkish Rebels Beaten By Government Troops

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 27.—A turn in the tide against the Kurdistan rebels was heralded by the government today with the announcement that federal troops had recaptured the important city of Kharput and the town of Elaziz.

GETS APPOINTMENT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—George Neuner was nominated today by President Coolidge for United States attorney for the District of Oregon.

COOLIDGE HAS POSTAL BILL TO SIGN

Congress Sends Measure To Provide $68,000,000 To President

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Congress sent the new omnibus postal bill to the White House today for President Coolidge's approval.

The measure, which will become a law as soon as the president signs it, will provide $68,000,000 wage increases for postal employes and exact a similar amount of increased postal revenues from higher postal rates. This provision was added by Congress to meet the objections raised by the president when he vetoed a pay increase bill last year. In its present form it is said to meet the president's approval.

The bill also included a new corrupt practices act, providing for complete publicity on campaign expenditures and contributions and limiting the campaign funds of senators and representatives. A limit of $10,000 to $25,000 for senators and $2500 to $5000 for representatives was provided, varying with the population of the candidate's district.

Parcels Post Raise

The postal rate advances will fall heavily on parcels post users through the levying of a 2 cents service charge on all packages. Existing rates will be retained, but a new "expeditious" service will be added for an additional cost of 25 cents.

First-class rates will remain the same as at present except that postal cards will cost 2 cents. Slightly higher rates will be provided for all special services, such as special delivery, insurance and C. O. D. service.

Newspaper Rate

Newspapers will be granted small decreases on the first two zones with increased rates on the farther zones. The second-class rates will be 1 1-2 cents on reading matter and a scale from 2 to 9 cents a pound on advertising matter. The scale ran 2 cents for first and second zones, 4 cents for third zones, 6 cents for fourth, fifth and sixth zones and 9 cents for seventh and eighth zones.

A flat rate of 1 1-2 cents for two ounces will be made on third-class matter, with a weight limit of eight ounces. All mail over that weight will be placed in the fourth class. Some minor exceptions were given to book, catalogue and seed mail, where a rate of 1 cent for two ounces was asked.

House Approves Land Sale To Los Angeles

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The house today passed a bill authorizing the secretary of the interior to sell to the city of Los Angeles a small tract of land in Inyo county which has been purchased by the federal government for relief of homeless Indians.

Iowa Society's Picnic Is Set For Tomorrow

Council Will Consider P. E. Fare Reduction

The Glendale City Council will meet in special session at 9 o'clock Monday morning, March 2, to discuss the suggestion of the Chamber of Commerce that the Pacific Electric Railway Co. be asked to lower its rates between Los Angeles and Glendale.

This announcement was made today by Mayor Spencer Robinson, who stated that he has decided to call a special meeting of the council for this purpose, instead of appointing a committee of three councilmen to confer over the proposed reduction, as authorized by the City Council at yesterday's session.

The proposal, as outlined by the Chamber of Commerce, through its transportation committee, is to request the Pacific Electric to change its Glendale-Los Angeles schedule from interurban to suburban service, with corresponding reduction of rates.

SWEEPING LOBBY HUNT IS STARTED

State Senate Also Authorizes Move to 'Smoke Out' Cinch Measures

BULLETIN

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Without any dissenting vote the Assembly today voted $1000 to cover the expenses of the special committee appointed to investigate charge of extortion made in Assemblyman Eddie Smith's bill to regulate the sale of Chinese herbs and the licensing of Chinese herb doctors.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—A sweeping lobby hunt and a field day for smoking out the so-called "cinch bills" were authorized today by the Senate.

This action was taken as a result of the Chinese herb bill scandal for the purpose of purging the Senate of any odium which might have attached itself to that body as a result of the Chinese expose.

Swing Behind Bill

The proposition was presented by Senator Ralph Swing of San Bernardino county, in the form of a resolution authorizing the lieutenant-governor to name a special committee of seven senators, whose duty it will be to institute the lobby hunt, go into the cinch bill situation and issue certificates to such lobbyists as have legitimate business here. The Swing resolution after some debate was adopted by a vote of 33 to 3.

'RED BARON' IS ON WAY TO CAPITAL

German Ambassador Says Guiding Principle Will Be Dawes' Plan

By S. D. WEYER
For International News Service.

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—"The guiding principle of my work in Washington will be my earnest hope to assure continued smooth execution of the Dawes plan," Baron Ago George Von Maltzan, new German ambassador to the United States, told International News Service today just before sailing for New York.

"This is the only poltical statement I wish to make," he said.

"Please deny for me in advance any political interviews which may be attributed to me after my arrival in Washington."

Von Maltzan was accompanied by his wife and 7-year-old daughter. The baroness is a granddaughter of the inventor of the famous Gruson steel method.

Called "Red Baron"

Von Maltzan has been called the "Red Baron" not only because his hair is red but because he really was author of the Rapallo treaty between Germany and Soviet Russian and, as such, long has been thought to have leanings toward the radical left wing.

Baron Von Maltzan is one of the shrewdest old-school diplomats in the German service. He has had wide experience in the east, thanks to a long diplomatic tenure there, and is versed in all the highways and by ways of Oriental subtlety and strategy.

Part in War

On August 1, 1914, the Baron, then charge d'affaires at Peking, obtained exclusive and positive information that Japan would declare war upon Germany—a step of which no one in far-off Wilhelmstrasse had dreamed. Von Maltzan conveyed the news to Berlin in the following code message:

"My engagement with Miss Butterfly daily expected. Please inform parents." Miss Butterfly, of course, was Japan.

Teapot Dome Trial To Proceed, Judge Rules

CHEYENNE, Wyo, Feb. 27.—Federal Judge T. Blake Kennedy today denied the application of Atlee Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts, special government oil counsel, for further continuance of the equity suit brought against Harry F. Sinclair's Mammoth Oil Co. for the recovery by the United States government of naval oil reserves on Teapot Dome. Trial of the case, postponed several times, will proceed on March 9.

San Jose Holds Record In Safe Cracking Jobs

SAN JOSE, Feb. 27.—With three new safe cracking jobs safely accomplished last night this section of California had attained the enviable record of twenty-one such accomplishments within the past few weeks, according to police statistics today. Total loss involved, however, was disappointing, only $6000 having changed hands.

FORM ORGANIZATION TO IMPROVE STREET ITS ENTIRE LENGTH

Property Owners Meet and Determine to Secure Fine Boulevard; City Planning Commission Is Favorable to Action

The Wilson Avenue Improvement association was created this morning at a meeting of Wilson avenue property owners, held in the office of the Glendale Feed & Fuel Co.-Valley Supply Co., 208-214 North Howard street. Bert P. Woodard was elected acting chairman of the association.

At a subsequent conference, held with Chairman T. W. Watson of the City Planning commission, it was decided that condemnation proceedings for widening this important east and west thoroughfare its entire distance from Eagle Rock to San Fernando road will be instituted, with a view to making it an eighty-foot boulevard, unless property owners involved will get together and dedicate the necessary right-of-way from the north side of the street.

As soon as plans for the widening, paving and lighting of Wilson avenue can be formulated, a formal meeting of the association will be called, permanent officers elected and the matter of this broad-gauge improvement laid before the property owners.

Chairman Watson of the City Planning commission told the members of the Wilson Avenue Improvement association this morning that the body he heads is firmly of the opinion that the most important street improvement project now before the city is the improvement of Wilson avenue. He intimated that the commission will render a report to the City Council on street conditions within the next month, and that this report will stress the immediate improvement of Wilson avenue.

Yesterday afternoon T. W. Watson and S. C. Kinch of the City Planning commission were present at the City club, Los Angeles, when Harland Bartholomew, city plan engineer, declared that a local business street not carrying through traffic should be a minimum of eighty feet wide, and should have a fifty-six foot roadway from curb to curb; while a

ARGUMENTS OVER L. A. UNION DEPOT

Interstate Commerce Board At Washington Hears Different Claims

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Arguments in the proceedings brought jointly before the Interstate Commerce commission by the city of Los Angeles and the California State Railroad commission, involving construction of a union passenger station at Los Angeles, were begun at Washington yesterday, and are expected to be concluded today, the state commission announced here this afternoon.

The railroad commission was represented by its attorney, Carl I. Wheat, and the city of Los Angeles by Max Thelen, formerly a member and president of the railroad commission.

Offer Opposition

Attorneys representing the Southern Pacific Co., and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Co., spoke in opposition to the station project today.

The Interstate Commerce commission hearing the arguments en banc, and frequent questions from the bench indicated, according to advices received by the railroad commission, the importance attached by the federal body to this proceeding.

Greece To Settle Her War Debt To England

ATHENS, Feb. 27.—Greece will soon sign an agreement for settlement of her 20,000,000 pounds sterling debt to Great Britain, it was learned today. Annuities will be paid in accordance with the terms for other allied debt settlements, it was said.

ORDINANCES OF LOS ANGELES VALID, IS VERDICT

Decision Proves of Vital Importance To Glendale, Official Points Out

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—The state supreme court today upheld the Los Angeles zoning ordinances, declaring that such zoning was within the proper police power of the city.

Glendale's system of zoning ordinances, dividing the city into residential, commercial and industrial districts, was further strengthened today by a decision of the California supreme court upholding the Los Angeles zoning ordinances, according to Chairman T. W. Watson of the City Planning commission. The court ruled that such zoning is within the proper police power of the city.

"The Glendale zoning ordinances are stronger today than yesterday as a result of this decision," said Mr. Watson. "They are based on the Los Angeles ordinances and any decision that upholds the ordinances of one city upholds those of the other.

"It is true that some few local zoning ordinances are subject to question, because they are based on certain specific cases and might not stand if brought into court. In the main, however, our ordinances are based on sound law, further strengthened by this latest decision, which the City Planning commission considers an important one.

Means Much to City

"It means a great deal to a city to be able to regulate and zone private property for the good of the greatest number of residents. In general it means better

L.A. HARBOR WORK MAY START SOON

Adoption of Amendment to Further Progress on the $15,000,000 Project

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The work on the $15,000,000 Los Angeles harbor may be started at once, with the assurance that the port authorities will be credited for funds expended, under an amendment to the rivers and harbors bill adopted this afternoon in the Senate.

High School Boy Dies From Injury To Head

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—George Holmes, 15-year-old San Pedro high school boy, and a son of Fred A. Holmes, chief engineer of the Standard Oil Co. at the harbor, died today from hemorrhage of the brain, the result of being struck by an eight-pound shot hurled by a schoolmate.

Paul Calvo, a freshman at the San Pedro high school, accidentally struck his chum with the shot on the athletic field at the high school yesterday.

Flagship On Dry Dock After Running Aground

MANILA, Feb. 27.—The U. S. Huron, which went aground Wednesday off Palawan island, 200 miles southeast of Manila, returned to Clongapo dry dock, Cavite, across the bay from here, late today for repairs. It is estimated twenty-four hours will be needed to condition the ship, indicating she was not seriously damaged.

Heir To Rich Estate Is Sought In California

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Perry S. Ferris of Cincinnati, Ohio, missing heir to a large estate that has been waiting for him for five years, was being sought in California today by Dr. Frank F. Ferris, his brother, who arrived in San Francisco yesterday. Perry S. Ferris, according to Dr. Ferris, left Cincinnati for California thirty years ago and suddenly dropped from sight about ten years ago. He was reported to have been seen in Stockton, Cal., July, 1924, Dr. Ferris said.

COURT RULES ON JAPANESE LAND HOLDERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Japanese residents in California can lease land in the state for residential and commercial purposes, according to a decision handed down today by the state supreme court. The court based its decision on the ground that the treaty of 1911 between the United States and Japan is still in force.

Public Invited to Attend Meeting Tonight, Help Form Evans for Congress Club

Loyal Republicans and patriotic citizens of Glendale who are desirous of seeing a Glendale man named as Republican candidate for Congress, will assemble at the City Hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight to form the "Evans For Congress Club," the notice of the call for the meeting being issued several days ago.

Shortly after the proposal that W. E. Evans would make an ideal candidate for Congress, scores of Glendalians have joined in asking that a meeting be called when an "Evans For Congress Club" could be formed.

F. W. Pigg, a staunch Democrat who has voted the Democratic ticket straight at every election since he was old enough to cast his ballot, called at the office of The Glendale Evening News today to announce that for the first time in his life he intended to support a Republican candidate, and would vote for W. E. Evans for congressman when the proper time comes. Mr. Pigg said he had known Mr. Evans for twenty-five years.

Rev. C. R. Norton, familiar in many political campaigns, has asked that his name be added to the list.

Dr. E. H. Parker called at the office of The Glendale Evening News today, saying he wanted to join those who had called the meeting.

T. L. Brown is another who has asked that his name be added to the list.

As pointed out in The Glendale Evening News yesterday, other communities in the ninth congressional district have "favorite son" candidates and so it is absolutely necessary for Glendale and the San Fernando valley to unite upon Mr. Evans as a candidate and to immediately start organizing in his behalf.

So the meeting at the City Hall at 7:30 o' clock tonight, to which the public is invited, means much to Glendale.

Have You Registered?

Residents of Glendale who desire to vote at the municipal election on April 14, 1925, can cast their ballots if—

They have registered since January 1, 1924, and have not moved since that date.

They have not registered since January 1, 1924, but register before March 14, 1925.

They have registered and moved they must register in the new precinct in which they are living.

Two deputy registrars are on duty at the office of The Glendale Evening News, 139 South Brand boulevard, where voters can register and become eligible to vote at the municipal election. If you have not registered since January 1, 1924, or have moved since you registered, come to the office of The Glendale Evening News, the big three-story newspaper plant at 139 South Brand boulevard, between 8 a. m. and 9 p. m. and register.

RUSSELL-PIERCE FURNITURE SALE

Beginning Monday Glendale Firm Will Offer Low Price Specials

In celebration of its fifth anniversary as a Glendale firm, Russell-Pierce Furniture Co., of San Fernando road is announcing for Monday the begin ing of a mammoth furniture sale. This event, according to Mr. Russell, is one that has been planned for weeks, special purchases in quantity lots have been made so that extremely low prices can be quoted.

Mr. Russell emphasizes the fact that although the company was conducting a big sale, this would in no wise interfere with its regular service in any way and that "convenient credit" would apply wherever desired.

Special Offer

Customers are extended the privilege of making a deposit on any furniture that they desire and leaving it for future delivery without storage charge. This plan said Mr. Pierce will be an advantage to people who are building and are not yet ready to move in.

One special advantage being offered by this firm on the purchase of upholstered pieces, is the selection of coverings from over 150 patterns and designs in a wide variety of materials. These include velour, tapestry, brochetelle and mohair. In this way it was pointed out that any desired color scheme could be harmoniously worked out with any particular style of interior finish.

LOS ANGELES

By Southland News Service.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—A woman's assertion that she has 145 cousins, and her offer of proof of the assertion caused dismissal of a lunacy charge against her. This was the decision of Superior Judge Gates yesterday in releasing Mrs. Mary M. Allen of lunacy charges. She was brought before the commission on charges that she had attempted to stab her husband. He alleged she was crazy because she contended she had 145 cousins. One of the cousins read the list in court. There were 145.

The state board of dental examiners obtained its first court conviction yesterday in its campaign to rid the state of at least 1000 persons who are said to be practicing dentistry without a license. William G. McIntosh of Long Beach pleaded guilty to the charge in Superior Judge Hardy's court after a request for probation was denied and was sentenced to one year in the county jail.

Miss Sally Lunn, who recently came in contact with the law because she insisted on riding a bicycle through traffic signals and became indignant when the violation was pointed out to her by a traffic officer, failed to appear in court yesterday morning to answer to the charge, and a warrant for her arrest was issued. When last seen she was pedaling her trusty bicycle in the direction of her home, and speaking her opinion of laws invented by the minority for the masses.

Arrangements for the reception to be given Miss Mary McSweeney, sister of the mayor of Cork who starved himself to death in prison, who will arrive in Los Angeles March 26, were made at a meeting of the Ancient Order of Hibernians last night.

CANDIDATES TO GET PETITIONS MARCH 5

Aspirants to Councilmanic Positions Must File Lists Before March 25; Municipal Election April 14

Persons who intend to become candidates for the city council have less than a week to wait until nomination petitions will be available at the office of the city clerk, and, judging from the selections made by residents of this city through The Glendale Evening News, a strong slate of non-partisan candidates will be circulating petitions next week.

The state law provides that petitions can not be put in circulation before March 5, and must be filed with the county registrar of voters not later than March 25 for checking. Many of the persons whose names have appeared in The Glendale Evening News as possible candidates will make the race, and their names will appear on the ballots for the municipal election on April 14.

Another Glendalian has reached the twenty-five mark in number of votes, and today the name of S. S. Beran, of 1529 East Broadway, appears as a possible candidate. Other possible candidates have been piling up votes and several are near the fifty-mark, which, when reached, results in their picture and biography appearing in The Gendale Evening News.

Blank Appears Daily

Each day there appears in this newspaper a blank form on which Glendale residents are invited to write the names of citizens who they believe are fitted for service on the City Council. Five candidates are to be elected next April.

When any person nominated receives fifty or more nominations, his or her picture and a brief biography will be published in The Glendale Evening News.

Five nominations is the limit any one person is permitted to make. Names of all persons nominated will be published when twenty-five or more votes have been received by any candidate.

The nomination blank appears on page two of today's Glendale Evening News. Make use of it at once and mail it to Nomination Editor, 139 South Brand, Glendale, California.

Following is the list of those who have been nominated thus far, and have received twenty-five or more votes:

ENGLISH COTTAGE DESIGN FOLLOWED

Unique Type of Architecture Is Seen On Fox Bros.' Residential Tract

Fox Bros., in their development of Cottage Grove and Brier lane, have added to the attractiveness and desirability of southeast Glendale as a residential district of the better class. English stucco cottages are the type of dwelling erected. These cottages are designed by R. H. Paul and C. B. Martin, English architects and built by the Pacific Housing corporation. They are the most artistic and complete cottages of this kind in California, according to Preston S. Fox.

The tract is located in the foothill district and joins onto the Oakridge tract. Owners are protected from undesirable surroundings by restrictions as to the price, size and kind of house to be erected on all lots that are sold.

Fox Bros. state that all street improvements are in and are of the very highest type, including the sewer. This tract is said to provide exclusiveness and convenience at the same time.

Reports Large Realty Transactions In City

Mrs. H. P. Siberell, of 224 Milford street, real estate broker, reports the closing of deals this week involving property, of which the combined estimates would approximate almost $100,000. The court on West Windsor road, estimated at $40,000 owned by Claude Harness was purchased by Dr. J. L. Flint and his brother, R. C. Flint. The trade involved a fifteen acre subdivision at San Fernando. Charles H. St. Martin of 528 West California avenue, sold an apartment site on South Jackson street just south of Broadway to H. J. Yale of Glendale, and a court in Los Angeles, valued at $30,000 figured in the trade. Brand boulevard property between Stocker and Dryden was sold for Charles H. St. Martin for $15,000, to a contractor in Hollywood. Other local realty operators concerned in the transactions were Charles C. Baum and George P. Porter.

Announces Services For Sunday Morning

Rev. Henry Scheideman, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, announces services for Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock at his church, 417 East Acacia avenue, inasmuch as there will be no services at the John Brown tabernacle. Sunday school and the afternoon preaching service will be held at the usual hours. The young people will join in the union church at 6:15 o'clock. Rev. Langford of Pasadena will preach at the night service at 7:30 o'clock.

Glendale Elks Assist In Pomona Dedication

Glendale Elks lodge sent a delegation Wednesday night to Pomona to attend the dedication celebration of the new $200,000 Elks home in that city. James A. S. E. BROWN FOR CITY TREASURER

Pioneer Resident, Formerly In Position at Tropico, Candidate For Office

S. E. Brown, 1239 South Maryland street, for seventeen years a resident of Glendale, today announced his candidacy for the office of city treasurer. At the present time conducting an insurance business, Mr. Brown is widely known in the city. He was city treasurer of Tropico during the last six years of its existence. He has spent considerable time as a deputy in the offices of the county assessor, tax collector and county clerk.

For eight years before coming to Glendale, Mr. Brown was a banker in North Dakota, he said today. He will file his petition as a candidate shortly after March 5. He has many friends in Glendale who will be greatly interested in his announcement that he is a candidate for city treasurer.

CITY EMPLOYES ORGANIZE

LONG BEACH, Feb. 27.—An association composed of employes of the city department of public service has organized, with a membership of 100, the nucleus of a body that will be composed of all municipal employes, designed to combat regulations that may be imposed on city employes in the future. The action, following closely the recent order for all city workers to put in a full eight hours each working day of the year is said to have been based partly on this order.

FROWN ON SKYSCRAPERS

INGLEWOOD, Feb. 27.—Notwithstanding pleas for skyscrapers in Inglewood, due to the coming of a number of big department stores and hotels, this city is still to be out in "the great open spaces" if G. Gordon Whitnell of the Los Angeles City Planning commission is to be heeded. Addressing the Inglewood zoning body, the City Planning authority frowned upon limit-height buildings, declaring that they would not only retard development of the outlying sections, but also would increase the water rates and taxes, because of the increased water pressure that would be required to protect them from fire.

THIS BIRD HAS REAL JOB

LANKERSHIM, Feb. 27.—Thomas Humphreys has a big job on his hands, but he says it isn't a bigger bite than he can chew. Humphreys' job is to dig up about 11,000 hens each week, which he has contracted to sell to one of the chain groceries of Los Angeles and surrounding cities. The contract calls for 600 cases of eggs a week, and all are to be of the "fresh yard egg" variety, gathered from various ranches in the San Fernando valley.

BIG HIGHWAY PROJECT

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 27.—What portends to be one of the largest highway relocation projects ever undertaken in the San Bernardino mountains is under consideration by the state bureau of public roads and the state highway commission, contemplating a rerouting of the 101-mile Rim of the World drive in Waterman canyon, to reduce the present 12 per cent grade to a climb of between 7 and 8 per cent. Under the proposd relocation the present switchbacks would be eliminated.

INVENTS ORCHARD HEATER

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 27.—A new system of orchard heating which, according to its inventor, S. . Mitchell, will cut the fuel bill and number of smudge pots in half, has been described to the Riverside Chamber of Commerce The plan is one of heat conservation by use of applied physics, founded on the idea that vaporizing water into steam gives off much heat, and that this heat will form a blanket of moist air.

Taxpayer Inquires As To School Head Trip

Editor, The Evening News:—It having been reported that the state superintendent of public instruction, in his address at the high school on February 10, stated that the taxpayers have the right to inquire into the expenditure of $70,000,000 collected in California this year for its de luxe school system, and invited "pitiless publicity," no one should now object to questions being asked. I, therefore, make bold to inquire what will be the expense of the present trip east of the head of our grammar schools, and what are the benefits to the schools arising from this expenditure?

Also, if the "abuses" alleged by the county superintendent of schools to exist in the Glendale schools, whereby the law is violated, have any connection with the absence of this official from his post?

Inasmuch as the children are supposed to be taught respect for law while in school, this question is very pertinent.

Letter Sent 73 Years Ago Is Discovered

A letter written seventy-three years ago by his uncle, James W. Lusk, has been discovered among family keepsakes by R. L. Foster of 632 Orange Grove avenue. The letter was written on July 14, 1852, from Richmond, New York, by Mr. Lusk to his sister, Mrs. Julia A. Foster, the latter being the mother of Mr. Foster. Although the letter was written seventy-three years ago it is still in good shape and is easily read. Mr. Lusk, who was a member of the Bryant, Lusk & Stratton Commercial colleges of Cleveland, Buffalo and New York City, took a premium in Paris for being the best writer in the world. He wrote the Spencerian type of writing, and, besides winning the premium in Paris, won many others. Mr. Foster plans to send the letter to his son, Fred L. Foster of Wichita, Kansas.

Spanish Class Formed At Tuesday Clubhouse

Language lovers of Glendale and vicinity will welcome the announcement that Spanish classes are now being conducted by Dr. Frederick E. Beckman at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, corner of Lexington drive and Central avenue, every Friday night between 7 and 9 o'clock.

For those who desire morning lessons, Dr. Beckman has formed two classes, to meet on Thursday and Friday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Dr. Beckman teaches, Spanish, French, German and Italian.

"A newly-organized French class, which meets from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock every Wednesday, has fourteen Glendale women now enrolled, which shows that Glendale folk are not slow in taking up anything worth while," says Dr. Beckman.

Brown Program

Friday night, 7:30 o'clock—"Committee on Starvation."

Saturday morning—No service.

Saturday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock—"A Great Woman" (women only invited).

Saturday night, 7:30 o'clock—"What Must I Do to Be Saved?"

Sunday morning—No service at the tabernacle.

Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock—"Slime Pits" (men only invited).

Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock—Mrs. Jones speaks to women at the Glendale Presbyterian church.

"Better be tied to your mother's apron strings than to a ball and chain in a chain gang," Evangelist John Brown told young people of Glendale who assembled in large crowds to hear his sermon on "Daniel" at the Union tabernacle on North Kenwood street last night. The speaker made self-respect of the young the keynote of his talk.

"If you live a life of self-respect, it will not be long before the world will respect you likewise," he said. "You have got to live with yourself; you may get away from other folks, but not from yourself, and it behooves you to live a life that you yourself can respect. The real 'you'

EVENING NEWS AIR SPECIAL TO VENTURA

Glendale Newspaper to Send Flyer to Secretaries' Meet Tomorrow

A representative of The Evening News, flying in a special Evening News airplane, will leave Glendale tomorrow morning for Ventura to represent this newspaper at the meeting of Southern California commercial secretaries when that organization considers plans for participation in Glendale's air meet on March 14 and 15.

Secretaries who will assemble at Ventura represent every Chamber of Commerce and civic organization in Southern California and are expected to pledge wholehearted support and co-operation to Glendale in staging the air meet.

The Evening News' ship will hop off from Glendale air port along with several other planes from Glendale at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and will arrive at Ventura in time for the luncheon and business session of the secretaries at noon. W. B. Kinner, president of the Kinner Airplane Manufacturing Co., will pilot the Glendale Evening News' plane.

During the Ventura meeting, Dr. T. C. Young, Glendale aeronautic enthusiast and chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of Glendale's comercial air meet, will deliver a thirty-minute talk to the secretaries. Following this, a discussion of plans for joining in the meet is scheduled. Dr. Young and Secretary Howard I. Wood of the Chamber of Commerce will fly to Ventura in one of the other ships in the Glendale party.

Flyer Enters Waffle-Baking Club Contest

Rumors are current that Dr. T. C. Young, Glendale aviator has come to earth with an awful jar. Mrs. Arthur Cresse has challenged him to a waffle baking contest, to be a feature Saturday night at the informal dancing party at Oakmont Country club.

Mrs. Cresse claims that she can bake an awful waffle, while Dr. Young concedes that her waffles may be awful good, but the waffles he can make and bake are the best in the world.

Club members and guests will be judges. To the tunes of the latest jazz the batter will be mixed by the two contestants and baked and served for the verdict of those present. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 12 o'clock.

Dr. Ferris To Speak At Cornerstone Laying

Dr. Lincoln A. Ferris, pastor of First Methodist church of Glendale, will be one of the speakers Sunday afternoon at the laying of the cornerstone of the new David and Margaret home at La Verne. He will tell of the aims and benefits of the new home. The program will open at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Margaret Locke Coates of Los Angeles, president of the Southern California conference of Women's Home Missionary society, will preside. Rev. Walter Buckner, Pasadena district superintendent, will give the invocation. The home is a Methodist institution for unfortunate children.

DAYS OF GOLD RUSH TO BE RECALLED

Dancing Girls, Rough Miners To Mingle In Big '49' Party Tonight

Dancing girls in their spangled skirts, rough miners in the costumes of the early California prospectors, and the free abandon and hilarity of boom days will reign supreme when the big tent at South Brand boulevard and Magnolia avenue is thrown open tonight for the "'49" party of Glendale Sciots. Wives and daughters of Sciots and Masons will be there to dance with the costumed miners and their friends; games of the '49 period, when money wasn't in existence and reckless gamblers staked their "poke" against fantastic fate in a turn of the wheel, will be in evidence. Hundreds of valuable prizes have been donated by Glendale merchants, and all

REVERSES OPINION

It takes a big man to change his mind and, after he has heard all the evidence, acknowledge that he was wrong. Such a man is Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas, who was originally one of the strongest advocates of the League of Nations. He believed in it so strongly as an agency that would outlaw war that he was in favor of the United States accepting membership in the League with or without reservation—any way to get in.

But Governor Allen has been in Europe as a representative of a Relief Association whose work saved tens of thousands in Central and Northern Europe from starvation, and he has studied the European situation thoroughly over a number of years. He saw at first hand the operation of the Soviets in Russia. He observed French diplomacy at work in Turkey, and Britain and Italy in Greece. He learned that Jugo-Slavia has a standing army of a million men. He saw all of Europe seething with international jealousies, racial hatreds and national ambitions. He comes back to America and tells us that the United States did not make a blunder and was not disloyal to the world's interests when it refused to enter the league.

Governor Allen does not advocate isolation in the sense that we are not to interest ourselves in Europe's problems. But he believes that everything important in a constructive way that has been contributed to Europe has been contributed by the United States. He characterizes all the nations of Europe as conspirators and says it will be another generation and perhaps two before Russia can have a stable government, and he opposes recognition of that country by the United States on any other basis than that outlined by the President and Secretary Hughes.

The opinions of Governor Allen in regard to the European situation are worthy of note because he once held views exactly opposite and because he has spent years in acquiring the information on which he bases his statements.

NATIONS PLAY POKER

The bill introduced in Congress by Senator Shipstead of Minnesota, authorizing the president to invite the nations of the world to enter into a mutual treaty to abolish military conscription for the next thirty years, sounds like a good and reasonable proposition. Nations that claim to want peace would have their sincerity or insincerity proved by their manner of accepting this invitation.

Senator Shipstead says the nations are playing a game of poker for the possession of the natural resources and the markets of the world, and "the time will again arrive when one or more of these poker players will find it convenient to accuse the others of cheating and the shooting will begin."

That is a plain and truthful statement of conditions as they are today and as they were before the late war. We hear a great deal about the prevalence of crime and the carrying of firearms by citizens. Often a tragedy occurs just because someone happens to be carrying a gun. The same thing is true of nations, according to the Minnesota senator. If the nations do not have armaments and soldiers it will not be so easy to start a war.

The nations of Europe conscript their young men for army service in peace time. The United States does not use the system except in emergencies, such as the late war, so we should have no hesitancy in signing such a treaty.

It is scarcely likely that all the nations of the world would agree on such a treaty, and it is possible that some, after adopting it, might regard it as a "scrap of paper," but it would go a long way toward lining up the nations that really want peace. Such an agreement should be welcomed as an economic measure alone.

CLIMATE GREATEST ASSET

California's climate is her greatest asset and we cannot afford to relax our vigilance in keeping this fact before the people of the world. It is well to be proud of our industrial growth and our many other assets, but let us keep our climate in the forefront of our attractions.

The survey issued by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. serves to emphasize the wisdom of such a course. According to this company, climatic conditions have much to do with the virulence of pneumonia. The combination of low temperature and high humidity is believed to be the greatest cause of pneumonia mortality. There is a well-defined pneumonia region in the United States, including the New England, the Middle Atlantic states, Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia, Colorado and Michigan. The average death rate from pneumonia in 1923 was 68.5 per 100,000 of population. In Pennsylvania the death rate was 100.

In the Pacific coast region, where there is no combination of low temperature and high humidity, the death rate is less than half the average of the Unitd States. Also, California has one of the lowest infant mortality rates in the United States.

Statistics of this kind should be given wide publicity, for many people who are no longer concerned about the material side of life are interested in a place where they can live long and enjoy life.

WOULD ANNUL MARRIAGES

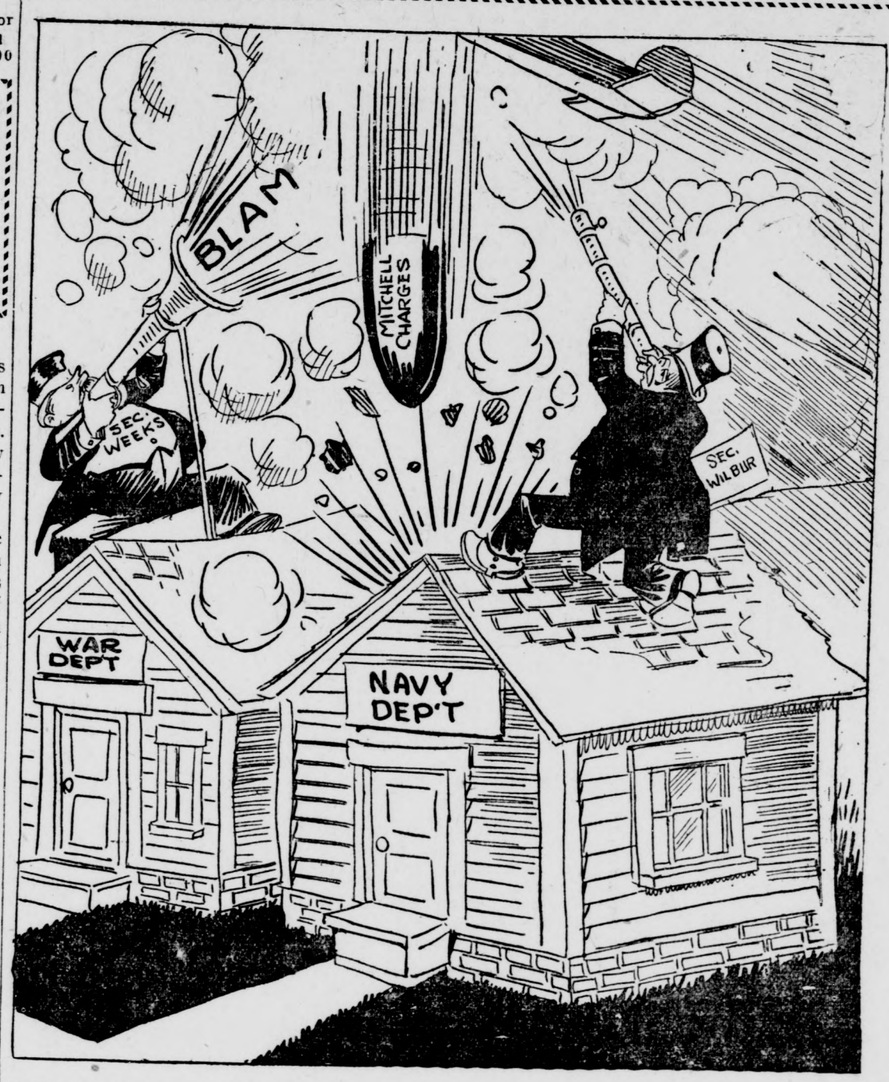
As an example of some of the idiotic things that some legislators would have enacted into laws, a Nebraska State Assemblyman is winning some notoriety by introducing a bill providing for the annulment of marriages of all those who have no children within three years of their wedding day. His argument is that the "best families" do not keep pace with those not so good in the number of their children. And the man who introduced this bill is a bachelor, which serves to verify the truth of the old saw that old maids and bachelors know all about matrimony and rearing children.

If this man is desirous of improving the race his example as a husband and father would be more effective than introducing foolish bills into the legislature. But perhaps he is not of the "best families," or he fears his children might be as freakish as the measure he has fathered.

This bill, of course, has not the slightest chance of passing, but it must go through the routine just as though it had some merit.

Why does not some one propose a law prohibiting freaks from serving as lawmakers?

Washington Forecast: Weather to Continue Bomb-y!



Pay As You Enter

By DR. FRANK CRANE

On some street cars there is the sign "Pay as you enter."

It would be a good thing if that sign were pasted over every career in life.

For you get only what you pay for, and pay for in advance.

Things do not come to you, allow you to enjoy them, and then have you pay for them, but you have to pay for them first whether you enjoy them or not.

Many people would like to be great pianists. They would enjoy the applause, the fame and the praise. But the only person who will be a great pianist is the one who first pays the price, the price of devotion, study and hard work. After the price is paid they may be famous or they may not be, but in any case they pay before they get on.

In any calling of life the money, or study, or pains, or whatever it is, must first be paid before the emoluments come. If a man is to be a business success it means hard years of work before that is attained.

If a doctor wishes to succeed in his profession he must labor through years of preparation.

Perhaps this is the reason why the Master said, "If any man shall come after Me let him first take up his cross."

Even in the matter of eternal life you pay as you enter.

It would seem that you should be allowed to see the prize you have, to enjoy the goods you have bought first and ascertain whether they are of value or not before you pay for them. Such is not the case. You must pay for them first whether you enjoy them or not.

You pay for everything in this world and the cheapest things are those that you pay for in advance. All arrangements for deferred payments in time simply means payment of a larger sum.

You must buy your ticket before you get on the train. You must get a little piece of pasteboard before you can see the show. You must pay a cover charge before you can sit down in the jazz palace and eat the food.

So in regard to spiritual things. A good many people do not believe in the Golden Rule, which is "Do unto others as you would that they should do unto you." They claim that it does not work out. The Golden Rule only works out with those people who do their part first. If you wait till the other fellow does his you will be still waiting. Many an individual, as well as all the nations of the earth, are waiting for the other fellow to do it first.

In the matter of international peace, therefore, as well as of individual benefit, we must pay as we enter.

Horoscope

Kindly stars rule this day, according to astrology. Mercury and the sun are in benefic aspect.

Under this planetary government there should be a keen sense of stimulation in business and financial affairs.

There should be extraordinary prospersity for publishers and newspapers should benefit tremendously.

Persons in need of employment should make supreme efforts to find their right places under this sway which makes for the best sort of luck.

There is a promising sign indicating access to popularity for the president of the United States who will grapple with big problems at this time.

While the stars indicate for men and women who carry big responsibilities a period of fair success, they should safeguard the health.

The next few weeks may be exceedingly menacing to persons of prominence who may end their careers suddenly, since it is written that the old must pass on rapidly at this time.

Women are to become more practical in their aims this year, although they will be peculiarly susceptible to sentiment.

Wise persons will be exceedingly careful to preserve the balance between the mental and emotional forces while this planetary rule prevails.

Serious storms of extraordinary character may be expected just now, for surprises in weather as well as in other things are foretold.

Unexpected troubles may disturb Sweden and affect the king, especially in the late summer are the aspects sinister.

Persons whose birthdate it is should run no risks in the coming year, for they may be subject to accidents. Business should be successful. Those who are employes may expect promotion.

Children born on this day probably will be wonderfully clever and the recipients of many favors from persons of influence and wealth.

Today's Poem

UP-HILL

Does the road wind up-hill all the way?
Yes, to the very end.
Will the day's journey take the whole long day?
From morn to night, my friend.

But is there for the night a resting place?
A roof for when the slow dark hours begin,
May not the darkness hide it from my face?
You cannot miss that inn.

Shall I meet other wayfarers at night?
Those who have gone before.
Then must I knock, or call when just in sight?
They will not keep you standing at that door.

Shall I find comfort, travel-sore and weak?
Of labor you shall find the sum.
Will there be beds for me and all who seek?
Yea, beds for all who come.

—Christini Rossetti.

The Best of Advice

By CLARK KINNARD

CLARK KINNAIRD

Nature is no spendthrift, but takes the shortest way to her ends, Emerson observed. As the general says to his soldiers, "if you want a fort," so nature makes every creature do its own work and get its living,—is it a planet, animal or tree. The planet makes itself. The animal cell makes itself; — then, what it wants.

As soon as there is life, there is self-direction and absorbing and using of material.

Life is freedom,—life is the direct ratio of its amount.

"When there is something to be done, the world knows how to get it done," Emerson wrote.

"The vegetable eye makes leaf, pericarp, root, bark, or thorn, as the need is;

"The first cell converts itself into stomach, mouth, nose, or nail, according to the want;

"The world throws its life into a hero or a shepherd, and puts him where he is wanted.

"Dante and Columbus were Italians in their time; they would be Americans or Russians today.

"Things ripen, new men come."

The adaption is not capricious. Emerson visions that the ulterior aim, the purpose beyond itself, the correlation by which planets subside and crystallize, then animate beasts and men,—will not stop but will work into finer particles, and from finer to finest.

The secret of the world is the tie between person and event. Person makes event, and event person.

The "times," "the age," what is that but a few profound persons and a few active persons who epitomize the times?

Emerson held that the same fitness may be presumed between a man and the time and event, as between the sexes, or between a race of animals and the food it eats, or the inferior races it uses.

"All the toys that infatuate men and which they play for—houses, land, money, luxury, power, fame, are the selfsame thing, with a new gauze or two of illusion overlaid.

"And of all the drums and rattles by which men are made willing to have their heads broke, and are led out solemnly every morning to parade,—the most admirable is this by which we are brought to believe that events are arbitrary and independent of actions.

"At the conjuror's, we detect the hair by which he moves his puppet, but we have not eyes sharp enough to descry the thread that ties cause and effect."

Put it down that nature magically suits the man to his fortunes, by making these of the fruit of his character.

Who's Who

The man nominated to be next secretary of agriculture in President Coolidge's cabinet is William M. Jardine, a man who began his career as a "cowpuncher" in the Big Hole basin of Montana.

At twenty, however, he had forsaken the range to attend Utah Agricultural college. Going to Washington in 1896, he became assistant United States cerealist, in charge of the grain work in the western half of the country. Four years later he assumed directorship of agronomy work at the Kansas State Agricultural college. He became its president in 1918.

As head of agricultural production in Kansas during the world war, Dr. Jardine won national fame. He is agricultural adviser to the American Bankers' association and lecturer at the National School for the Training of Chamber of Commerce Secretaries.

As a writer on agricultural subjects he is well known.

Jardine outlined some of his views on agriculture before a senate committee, to which he was explaining recommendations of the agricultural conference. Agriculture in the United States, he said, is passing through a normal post-war crisis, from which its recovery is certain.

Asserting his "unalterable optimism" for the outcome, he said he did not view the present situation as an emergency, but as an aftermath of war similar to periods faced by farmers in the past.

"Only this was the greatest war of history, and the most destructive," he added; "and the effects, naturally, are more pronounced. You can't tell me we won't win through, though," he declared, "when I see the wheat acreage reduced by intensive education in three years from 75,000,000 to 52,000,000 acres."

By changing from two to three shifts a day and eliminating holiday and Sunday shutdowns, paper mills of Soviet Russia expect to increase production 20 per cent while reducing costs.

Before the war Russia bought $800,000 worth of wool from Persia each year; since the conflict it purchased less than $12,000 worth in twelve months.

Taxes in Netherlands India are so high that merchants have to demand prices that make the buying of many articles direct from Europe cheaper for the consumer.

New Arrest Made In Hotaling Murder Plot

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Police today were continuing their investigation into the alleged plot to kill Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hotaling, prominent members of San Francisco society and part heirs to the long contested Hotaling millions. Details of the asserted plot were declared by Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson to have been revealed to the police by Ralph P. King, former policeman and aviator.

"Russian Lou" Madison arrested yesterday on the strength of King's alleged revelations to the police, was declared by Captain Matheson to have confessed that he and a friend had taken $3300 from King as payment for the proposed murders but declared they never had any intention of keeping their agreement.

Navy And State Court In Jurisdiction Clash

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—The navy will contest the right of a state court to hear habeas corpus proceedings over a United States naval officer, it was learned today at the Mare Island Navy yard, near here, following the recent issuance of such a writ by Superior Judge Percy S. King of San Francisco at the request of civilian attorneys for Lieutenant Frank E. Kennedy, now in the Napa state insane asylum, west of Mare island, demanding that Kennedy be produced in court next Monday for the purpose of showing that he is not insane. The navy, it became known, will claim jurisdiction over Kennedy as a member of its fighting force, not subject to process in a civil court.

Indiana Solons Back After Fleeing State

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 27.—Having obtained the promise of Republican leaders that the Penrod "gerrymander" bill, redistricting the state, would not be "forced upon them," the recalcitrant Indiana Senate Democratic minority was back in the Hoosier capital today, ready to answer the roll call.

Terms of the agreement between the Senate majority and the fifteen Democratic senators who fled to Ohio to evade arrest on charges of wilfully breaking a quorum when they feared their party would lose a seat in Congress by passage of the "gerrymander" measure were not made public.

Princess Fails Court In Damage Case Trial

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 27.—The Princess Suad Chakir, formerly Sidi Wirt Spreckels of San Francisco, was unable to appear today when her suit for damages against the Princess Cheviakar was called in a courtroom tense with anticipation. The Princess Cheviakar appeared, however, and with flashing eyes made a categorical denial of the charges that she attempted to incite Turkish soldiers to lynch the San Francisco girl. The court adjourned to March 30.

Crack Turf Performer Sold To Californian

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27.—S. N. Holman, owner of a large stable of horses which he has campaigned over the local tracks with considerable success this season, announced today the sale of the 3-year-old Elector to the La Brea stable near Los Angeles. John C. McKee came here and closed the deal involving $25,000. Elector will be shipped to Ti Juana where he will be started in the rich Coffroth handicap. In the same car will be four horses belonging to Holman.

Lord Balfour's Visit Puts Land in Mourning

JERUSALEM, Feb. 27.—Arab executives have proclaimed as a day of mourning the day upon which Lord Balfour arrives for a visit to the Holy Land. They have cabled Balfour that, since they cannot agree with his policy anent Palestine, he will be given no reception by Arab chiefs.

Franco-German Treaty Approved By French

PARIS, Feb. 27.—President Gaston Doumergue, presiding at a meeting of the cabinet today, formally approved negotiations in the Franco-German commercial pact. He approved also a decree designating a consultative committee to negotiate with the Soviets a settlement of the Russian debt.

LOCATE AVIATORS

PARIS, Feb. 27.—Captains Le Maitre and Arrachard, aviators who were missing nearly a week, have been located at Ul-Golal-Gola, near Timbuctoo, the air ministry told International News Service today. Both men and their airplane were in excellent condition, the ministry said.

L. A. Zone Ordinances Are Upheld In Court

planned, healthier and more artistic cities. Specifically it means that Glendale may exercise a reasonable control over the type of construction to go up in the various sections of the city and know that it has the authority of the California superior court behind such control.

"Before the city of Los Angeles undertook to go far with its zoning ordinances two or three test cases were carried to the United States supreme court. The decisions there handed down were favorable and upon that impregnable foundation of law the present intricate and effective system was developed, which is reflected in the zoning system employed by the city of Glendale."

Three Decisions Prove Of Importance to Cities

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Three decisions having an important bearing upon the future development of cities of California were handed down by the supreme court today. The decisions affirmed the power of a city to zone under a general comprehensive zoning ordinance.

The leading case of George L. and Frances Miller vs. the board of public works of Los Angeles involved the validity of an ordinance which zoned a certain district as a "strictly residential district."

The second case was brought by Hector N. Zahn and W. A. Ross, also against the board of public works of Los Angeles. The third case involved zoning in the small town of Atherton, on the San Francisco peninsula.

Both Los Angeles parties wanted to construct types of structures not permitted in the residential zones where their lots were situated.

In all three decisions the supreme court held that the protection of strictly residential districts from the encroachment of business establishments, apartments and flats was a legitimate exercise of the police power and did not contravene the provisions of the federal and state constitutions.

While the right of a municipality to exclude from certain districts nuisances and "near nuisances" has previously been before the supreme court, the validity of a comprehensive zoning ordinance districting an entire city, such as the Los Angeles zoning, was raised for the first time in the Miller and Zahn and Ross cases.

The decision in these two cases definitely decides in favor of the constitutionality of the zoning pursuant to a comprehensive zoning plan which covers the entire city and provides for future department along definite lines.

MARKET SUMMARY

By Southland News Service

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—Directors of the New York Federal Reserve bank yesterday increased the discount rate from 3 to 3½ per cent. The latter is the Los Angeles rediscount rate. Local bankers believe there will be no increase here for the reason that bank statements reveal so much idle money. Good loans are much desired by many banks.

California and Hawaiian refined sugar was advanced ten points to 6 cents a pound yesterday.

United States Steel now is operating at about 93 cents capacity, and announcement of a small increase in unfilled orders is expected.

Announcement was made today that Holly Development Co. had arranged to expend $250,000 for additional development work in the Huntington Beach oil field.

Cable reports state that the present outlook for European crops is even worse than it was a year ago. Foreigners are reported to be buying new crop futures on American exchanges.

Diet And Health

ANSWERS TO MOTHERS

Mrs. R.—You should see a specialist about the eruption on your child's scalp. From the description it looks as though it were something more serious than ringworm.

Ringworm is quite characteristic. It is called ringworm because it forms in rings. It really isn't due to a worm, but to a fungus (vegetable) growth. Ringworm on the scalp is very difficult to cure because these fungus growths burrow down into the hair follicles and are hard to reach with medication.

The patches should be scrubbed with tar soap and water so as to remove all the scales. Sulphur ointment is considered one of the best remedies. This is to be rubbed into the patches very thoroughly and not merely smeared over. Scrub each day with soap and water and put on fresh ointment.

Painting with iodin is more effective in some cases. Jackson says he has found that the best way to use iodin is to rub one dram of the crystals of iodin into one ounce of goose grease. This is to be well rubbed into the patches with a stiff brush. This treatment can also be used for ringworm on the body.

Ringworm is highly contagious and children suffering from it should be taken from school. They must have their own combs and brushes, and their clothing should not be worn by other children. They must sleep alone.

REDUCING DURING PREGNACY

"Dear Doctor—Should a pregnant woman reduce? Would a woman 47 years old, five feet seven inches tall, weight 181 pounds, if pregnant, be likely to keep menstruating throughout pregnancy?

"Some insist that a woman of that age has enough strength in every way to carry a child the full nine months and at the same time menstruate normally. Is this true in your opinion?—Mrs. L."

We recently took up the subject of reducing during pregnancy. I'll repeat briefly what I said.

If a woman is overweight she should reduce. It is even more important in pregnancy than at other times, but, of course, she must not cut down on the foods that are necessary for the baby's growth and health, and her own health. This means that she should have one quart of milk, liberal amounts of green leaf vegetables and fruits, some eggs, especially egg yolks, whole grain cereals and breads and some nuts. She can cut down her sweets and oils and excess bread and butter and meat.

It occasionally happens that the menstrual flow continues slightly during pregnancy. But it is not normal, usually. Is this woman sure she is pregnant? It is possible that she has a tumor growth. Has she had an examination? She should be under the care of a competent physician.

CROSS-EYED BABIES

Mrs. A.—The eye muscles in very young babies have not learned to work together very well, so it is not at all uncommon for babies at times to look cross-eyed.

If you find the condition becomes worse as the baby gets older, you must consult your physician about it. I am quite sure, from your description that it is just the normal inability of the eye muscles that your baby is suffering from.

Mrs. X.—We have articles on Bed Wetting and Thumbsucking, which you may have by sending a self-addressed and stamped envelope with your request. Also ask for the list of books on Sex Hygiene.

Tomorrow—A Letter from China

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible; if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s.a.s.e., if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

"Forty Years a Housekeeper: I have found that table cloths first begin to show wear along the creases in which they are habitually folded. When this occurs, I cut one inch of goods from one end of the tablecloth and also one inch from one side of it, then rehem the edges; by this method the creases will fall in new places."

"H. H.: Do not darn stockings with the weave; darn diagonally across it, so that the darn will 'give' as the stocking stretches, thus lessening the tendency of the fabric to break into new holes in the locality of that darn. I have also found it helpful to put a piece of coarse, soft black net under the hole in a child's black stocking, especially when this hole comes at the knee. Put it on diagonally, and darn over it diagnolly, through its meshes; this method takes less time and makes a stronger and neater-looking darn."

"Veteran Housewife: You can't beat my Boiled Starch. Here it is: For moderate stiffness I use one-quarter of a cup of starch to one quart of water. For a stiff body finish I use one-half cup of the starch to one quart of water. Begin by mixing the starch to a thin, smooth paste with cold water and stir slowly into the boiling water; add one-half tablespoon of borax, and one-quarter of a tablespoon of lard, and cook slowly for fifteen minutes (although sometimes I let it cook for twenty minutes). Often, too, I use either one-quarter of a tablespoon of kerosene oil, one-quarter of a tablespoon of turpentine, or a one-quarter-inch cube of paraffin wax in place of the lard in this formula. The best way to determine which you, personally, prefer of these four elements, is to try them all. No two housekeepers seem to get exactly the same results with their work."

"Mary: I have found that to stir cooking rice will break the kernels and make them mushy; but that, if not stirred, a layer of rice is likely to stick to the bottom of the kettle. But I now prevent this by greasing the bottom of the kettle. But I kow a strip one inch wide around the top of the pot, inside, to prevent the rice from boiling over (unless, of course, you have used too much water or have allowed it to boil too violently)."

Tomorrow—A Little Girl's Sweater

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use YOUR full name, street number, and the name of your city and state.—The Editor.

Chats On Beauty

By EDNA KENT FORBES

FOR TIRED FEET

Girls whose work keeps them on their feet a great deal, and housewives who do not happen to live in one of these two-by-four affairs we have learned to regard as the modern home, write me daily of the terrible aches in their feet and ankles after the day's work is only partly done.

My very first bit of advice is for them to wear the proper sort of soft, low heeled shoes. Sport shoes that are of good quality so the leather is not harsh are the best, for they generally have wide toes and always low heels. Besides, they are wider than a similarly marked width in dressy shoes; that is, double A in sports shoes is about equal to A in fancy ones, etc.

The chief thing is the low heel. Feet are not accustomed to being raised more than an inch from the floor, even feet that have been put into high heeled shoes for years. Certain delicate bones are misplaced, the result is one form or another of falling arches, aches, pains and backaches, which seem to have nothing to do with the feet but which are caused by bad shoes. The weight of the body must go on the ball of the foot, an inch heel will allow this, even force it, in some cases where the body is wrongly held so the weight bare footed, would be on the heels.

No one can stand for hours a day without being under a strain. It is wrong to increase this strain by standing, not on the two feet made to bear the weight, but on ten weak toes and slanting, helpless set of delicate bones that would ordinarily form two firm arches of the feet. Every bone and every nerve in the body must respond to this strain, must react to it, so anything from a simple headache to what the physicians lump under the general title of internal troubles, are the result.

Bathe the feet in hot water or rub them with a little lemon to rest them after a long strain, and pour talcum powder into the evening shoes when you change from day time working ones.

Bobby.—A long face needs more hair on the sides, which is an easy readjustment in your case as it conforms exactly with the present mode. If there is a tendency to grow loose hairs on the neck below the hair line, you will have to keep them clipped close to the skin!

This may refresh your feet

It requires a classic type of features to stand the hair parted in tures to stand having the hair parted in the middle and brushed to lie flat. Bobbed hair will need more shampooing than long hair as it is apt to get oily, and packs to the head in a week or more. This is partly due to the very snug hats we are wearing at present.

Tomorrow—Some "Tips."

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Art Of France

French art was studied by Delphian members yesterday morning at the chapter meeting at the home of Mrs. Barton Manbert, 621 South Columbus avenue. Mrs. H. D. Goss, chapter president, presided at a short business meeting. Nineteen members and two guests Mrs. Boyer and Mrs. Newal were in attendance. Mrs. H. D. Yarick, who has recently returned from Carmel-by-the-Sea, was also present. Mrs. Barton Manbert, leader, and members of the Lotus group, had charge of the program. Paintings of French artists were shown by Mrs. Manbert and added interest to the study period. Mrs. Manbert in her talk gave the historical background of art. Members taking part in the program were: Mrs. C. R. Colburn, who gave a talk on classical landscape painters; Mrs. L. W. Bosserman discussed LeBrum, Watteau and Chardin; Mrs. D. W. Stevenson told of the portrait painters of 1776 and 1830; Mrs. J. D. Zinke spoke on Corot; Mrs. R. W. Russell, told of Rousseau, Viaz and and Dupre; Mrs. P. O. Lucas took Miller as her subject; and Mrs. R. W. Ferguson spoke of Rosa Bonheur. The next group meetings will be held on March 12 and a chapter meeting is scheduled for March 26.

Hold Food Sale

The Women's Guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church will hold a cooked food sale, tomorrow, beginning at 9 o'clock, at the Porter Furniture store, corner of West Broadway and Orange street. Mrs. Ridgeway and Mrs. W. J. Farbar will be in charge. Plans for the sale were made at the all meeting yesterday in the Guild hall.

Elect Officers

Election of officers was held yesterday at the meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Tropico Presbyterian church. Luncheon was served at 12:30 o'clock with Mrs. S. E. Brown in charge. New officers elected are: Mrs. H. B. Goldsborough, president; Mrs. L. J. Andrews, first vice-president; Mrs. J. M. Hebbert, second vice-president; Mrs. Hail, secretary; Mrs. S. E. Brown, treasurer; Mrs. J. M. Server, young people's secretary; and Mrs. Allen Adams, literature secretary. Annual reports from the secretary and treasurer were given and Mrs. S. E. Brown, Mrs. H. B. Goldsborough and Mrs. Hail were elected delegates to attend the annual Presbyterial meeting in March. Mrs. S. E. Brown presided at the meeting. Following the business session Mrs. Lucas, a missionary in Korea for eleven years, who is home on furlough, gave an interesting talk on the women of Korea telling of their home life and mode of dress. She showed costumes worn by Korean women and also samples of cloth which is used for their dresses. The devotional service was in charge of Mrs. Glenn B. Porter.

Mrs. Lane Speaks

Mrs. Martella Lane, California painter of redwood trees, was the speaker yesterday afternoon at the tea of First Congregational church women held at the home of Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, 246 North Central avenue. Mrs. Lane gave a talk on the redwoods, telling of the effort made to save them. She also exhibited paintings she had made of the redwood trees and groves. Sixty women and friends of the church were present. Home-made cake and tea were served by Mrs. Ocker, assisted by Mesdames Haight, G. H. Schulte, Mrs. W. L. Jencks and Blake Franklin.

Work on Quilts

Orders for twelve more quilts have been received by the Aid society of Central Christian church. One quilt was completed yesterday and work started on another one. Six quilts have been finished since the first of January. The prayer service was conducted by Mrs. Eva M. Hutton, each woman present taking a part in the service. Twenty-five women were in attendance at the meeting.

Auxiliary Meets

Mrs. Harold Knapp of 439 Pacific avenue was hostess yesterday afternoon to members of the Letter Carriers' auxiliary. The afternoon was spent with needlework. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held on March 14 at the Knights of Pythias hall, corner of South Brand boulevard and Park avenue. The auxiliary will serve refreshments for the Letter Carriers after the meeting.

Hosts at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hensel of 1444 Valley View road were hosts at a dinner party last night entertaining a group of out-of-town friends. There were twelve guests and after the dinner the evening was spent informally. Yellow jasmine was used in artistic arrangement for decoration.

Shower Honoree

Mrs. Marion Patrick of Los Angeles was honoree yesterday afternoon at a prettily-appointed shower at the home of Mrs. Eugene L. Mouser, 627 North Howard street. Assisting Mrs. Mouser were her aunt, Mrs. John Mouser of Marion, Indiana, and Mrs. Thomas W. Long. A radio concert was the entertainment feature. At 4 o'clock the doors of the dining-room were opened, revealing a beautifully-decorated luncheon table. Mrs. Mouser had used a rose-petal design for the table appointments. The centerpiece was a cleverly-made basket of crepe paper rose petals. Miscellaneous gifts filled the basket, presided over by a stork. Sweet-peas in shades of pink, white lace paper doilies frilled with pink rose petals, pink favor baskets and candles were added features. The placecards bore kewpie figures. Guests were Mesdames James Fords, Marion Patrick, Margaret Watson, Thomas W. Long, Frank Lipstreu, Charles Ledbetter, Otto Skiles, David Hawkey, John Mouser D. E. Timbrook, William Ryberg.

R. T. W. Meeting

Mrs. Myrtle Jacobs of 1441 Dorothy drive was hostess yesterday to members of R. T. W. class of First Baptist church. Spring flowers were used by the hostess in arranging her home for the affair. Devotionals were led by Miss Lea Skaggs. Mrs. Pearl Elliott, president, directed a short business meeting. Committees were appointed. Regret was expressed at the absence of the class teacher, Mrs. Jennie B. Doxsee, who was ill and unable to attend. It was the first time she has been absent in seven years. There were twenty-eight members present. Hostesses were Mesdames Jacobs, Brown, Doceray, Schneider.

Another Monument to S. E. Glendale

The Opening and Improving of Glendale Heights Extension

Last year gave a new inspiration to the already fast growing section south of Palmer Ave.; and through our efforts leases were made, which caused the erection of a fine business block by Mr. Joseph Baudino, which building now houses The Sam Seelig Grocery, The Funk Pharmacy and Dolan's Hardware & Specialty Shop.

Seeing the wonderful future of this business corner and realizing the necessity of more shops, Mr. Hogsett followed with the erection of another fine building, just completed. All this activity causes values to rise rapidly and is attracting many builders, who realize the advantages of a quick market for homes in a fast growing community, close to the heart of Los Angeles and still but five minutes' ride from the center of Glendale.

THESE BEAUTIFUL HILL SLOPES AND HILL TOPS MAKE IDEAL SETTINGS FOR HOMES AND THERE ARE STILL AVAILABLE SITES FROM 60 TO 80 FOOT FRONTAGE AT VERY REASONABLE PRICES (WHICH INCLUDE ALL IMPROVEMENTS NOW IN AND PAID FOR) AND FULLY COVERED BY GOOD RESIDENTIAL RESTRICTIONS THAT PROTECT YOU AGAINST UNDESIRABLE SURROUNDINGS.

Buy now and build your home where an interesting view of the City, Valley and Mountains greets you from your window every day and every night.

We will gladly call for you at any time and show you our property. Please do not feel obligated in any way.

Dutton the Home Fynder was the general contractor. No red tags were given out on this building, red tags being issued for condemnation or change by the city hall building inspector.

The stragetic location at Adams and Palmer Streets is immediately recognized when it is considered that York Boulevard now paved and curbed, connects with Adams Street, giving Glendale another thoroughfare into Los Angeles, Highland Park, South Pasadena, Alhambra and towns to the east. Then, again, the great Sycamore Canyon Drive, extending eventually from Pasadena straight through Glendale to Palmer Street, thence across to San Fernando and Los Feliz Roads—this corner being the only property zoned for commercial purposes south of Colorado and east of Glendale Avenue. This intersection is destined to be a natural trading point for the thousands of people who will live in this great section, known as "The Beautiful Hill of Southeast Glendale."

DARKENED WINDOWS

By CORNELIA KANE RATHBONE

Copyright, D. Appleton & Co. Serialized by Ledger Syndicate

"Ah, you were on the steps, Mr. Graham!" exclaimed Breitman. "What brought you there, may I ask?"

The sudden flash of those small, piercing eyes was disconcerting. Graham felt as if his very soul were being searched. He half expected as if to see an accusing finger pointed and to hear the inspector thunder: "What were you doing alone in that empty house, you and that dead man?" He had his answer ready, however. He had made up his mind to say nothing about the note found in the overcoat pocket, for he was obliged to confess to himself that it might bring trouble to Evadne. Besides, the note was lost and he had nothing to prove its existence. So in answer to the Inspector's sharp question, he spoke up with hardly an instant of hesitation.

"I came in answer to a telephone call from Mr. Hurst. He had telephoned asknig my uncle, Judge Graham, to come to him at once. My uncle, unfortunately was out of town. I was not in the house when the call came, and had telephoned asking my uncle, housekeeper informed me of it. Not knowing what might be wanted, I thought I had better come around and find out whether there was anything I could attend to in my uncle's absence."

"What time was it when Mr. Hurst telephoned?"

"About half-past eight," the housekeeper said.

"And what time did you reach here?"

"Heaven grant that I won't be asked to repeat this testimony under oath!" he thought. Trusting that heaven would be kind and take account only of his good intentions, he went on recklessly, growing somewhat proud of his newly-discovered powers of invention.

"I stood on the steps awhile, wondering what I had better do. While I was hesitating Mrs. Hurst came and I told her I was afraid something was wrong."

Flint, who had slipped away for a moment, returned just then to say that he had telephoned to Colonel Sanford. His voice stole pleasantly on Graham's ear after Breitman's harsh tones.

"Well, what did you learn?" asked the Inspector.

"I got Colonel Sanford himself on the phone, and he told me that somebody called up Mr. Hurst while they were at dinner; that he seemed disturbed when he returned to the dining room, and said he must leave at once. He gave no excuse, he onld said that he might come back and then, again, that he mightn't. All the butler who had answered the phone knew was that it was a woman's voice that called. I sent in an order to have the call traced."

"All right," said the inspector, "we'll go up now. Sergeant Bassett phoned me that Mr. Hurst had been shot while sitting at his desk," he said, turning to Graham. "He took it for granted it was Mr. Hurst, that is; we'll have Mrs. Hurst identify him."

"His attorney, Mr. Graham, can do that," suggested Flint.

"Unfortunately, being only the junior partner, I never saw Mr. Hurst," said Graham. "But surely somebody else——"

"I particularly want Mrs. Hurst," returned Breitman, cutting him short.

"Brute!" muttered Graham. "Do you think it will be too much for you?" he asked, stepping to Evadne's side.

"Oh, no," she answered, "I can come. I am better now—it was the first shock, you know." She rose and walked steadily toward the door. Flint stepped forward and drew back the heavy portieres, and, with a slight, somewhat haughty, inclination of the head in acknowledgment, she passed through the door.

"Like a queen," commented Graham.

In the hall she stopped for an instant to undo the fastenings of her long cloak which she laid on a chair. Her every motion pleased Graham's fastidious eye. But, as she turned toward him, inviting him, with a slight gesture, to give her his arm, a sudden sickening horror clutched him. On the sleeve of her white gown, hideous as the mark of a branding iron on the white flesh of a criminal, was a wet, red stain.

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSS WORD PUZZLE

The way to solve the Cross Word Puzzle is to fill in the white squares of the diagram with the words which agree with the accompanying definitions. The definitions are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the diagram. Any word defined in the text under "HORIZONTAL" will begin at its number, shown on the diagram, and will extend all the way across to the first black space to the right of that number. That is, the word must begin in the square that contains its identifying number, and extend as far as the white squares continue uninterruptedly. Any word defined under "VERTICAL" will also begin in the white space that contains its number, but will extend downward as far as the white spaces remain uninterruptedly.

UNCLE WIGGILY

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Copyright, 1925, By The McClure Newspaper Syndicate

UNCLE WIGGILY AND JACKIE'S JIGGER

Once upon a time, when the father of Jackie Bow Wow, the little puppy dog boy, came back from a visit to a big city Mr. Bow Wow bought Jackie a jigger and he brought Peetie a putter. But this story is about Jackie's jigger.

The jigger which Mr. Bow Wow brought for his little doggie was something like a jumping-jack and something like a top. Part of the time the jigger would jump and part of the time it would spin.

"I think my jigger is very nice," barked Jackie as he played with it, and let his brother Peetie try it.

"But I like my putter better," whined Peetie, who let Jackie try his toy.

So each little doggie boy was happy and pleased, until one day something happened. Uncle Wiggily was about to hop away from his hollow stump bungalow to seek an adventure, when he heard a sad, whining sound out on the steps.

"Who is there and what's the matter?" asked the bunny, getting ready to twinkle his pink nose very fast in case it should be the Fuzzy Fox.

"I'm Jackie Bow Wow," was the answer, "and my jigger is broken. Do you think you could fix it, Uncle Wiggily?"

"I don't know, but I'll try," answered the rabbit gentleman. He opened the door and let in the little doggie boy. Then Jackie wound up his jigger, but it would neither jump nor spin. It wouldn't even jig.

"Do you think you can fix it, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Jackie anxiously. "If you can't, I won't have anything to play with."

"I guess I can fix it all right," said the bunny. "I see what's the matter. It needs a few nails hammered in it. I'll get my toolbox."

Soon Uncle Wiggily was seated on the floor in his hollow stump bungalow, holding the jigger in one paw and getting ready to hammer some nails in with the other paw. But as soon as Uncle Wiggily took a nail in one paw and his hammer in the other paw, he had to let go the jigger, for, not being a monkey, the bunny couldn't hold things in his feet paws.

"I need three paws to hold the hammer, the nail and the jigger," said Mr. Longears. "I don't see how I am going to do it."

"Let me hold the jigger," said Jackie. "I'll keep it steady while you hammer in the nails."

"That's a good idea!" said the bunny.

"But you'll be careful not to let your hammer slip and hit my paws, won't you?" asked Jackie.

"I'll be very careful," said the rabbit gentleman. So Jackie held the jigger and Uncle Wiggily hammered in the nails, until there was but one more to pound in, when, all of a sudden, in through the door that Jackie had accidentally left open, jumped the Woozie Wolf.

"Oh ho! Oh ha!" howled the Wolf. "This is the time I have caught you, Uncle Wiggily. I am going to carry you off to my den!"

"Will you please let me finish mending Jackie's jigger before you carry me away?" humbly asked the rabbit. "I have only one more nail to pound in."

"Go ahead—finish the work," growled the Wolf. But little Jackie was so surprised at seeing the bad chap so close that the doggie boy couldn't hold the jigger.

"I'll hold it," offered the Wolf, seeing that Uncle Wiggily couldn't drive in the nail unless he had help. So the Wolf held the jigger toy, Uncle Wiggily raised the hammer high and cried:

"I promised I wouldn't hammer Jackie's paw, but I didn't promise I wouldn't hammer your paws, Mr. Wolf! So here goes!" With that the bunny banged the hammer as hard as he could on the Wolf's paw.

"Wowchie! Ouchie! Wow!" howled the bad chap, popping his paw into his mouth. And then, as Uncle Wiggily raised the hammer again the bad chap gave a yell and jumped out of the window, crying: "Don't hit me again! I'll be good!"

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Jackie, no longer afraid. Then the last nail was pounded in, the jigger was mended and Jackie ran home, happy.

And if the piano doesn't go out to play in the snow with the icicle's little boy and catch cold, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Peetie's putter.

DOBINSON PLAYERS

Fred J. Butler, who is now directing and producing "Barnum Was Right," to be put on at the Playhouse, Glendale, on Monday night, has a reputation seldom gained by an other man. Probably most theatregoers will remember him as having directed the original production of "Civilian Clothes," which ran at the Morosco theatre for one year, and was then taken to New York, where it made a phenomenal success.

Mr. Butler spent fifteen years in San Francisco. He made the Alcazar Stock Co. there, and averaged fifty plays a year during the time that he was their director and producer. His first stock productions were all of the Belasco plays, among them "The Girl of the Golden West," Rose of the Rancho,' and "Sweet Kitty Bellairs." After being five years at the Morosco he then became a director for motion pictures.

It has been a most fortunate stroke that at this time Mrs. Dobinson has been able to secure Mr. Butler to come to Glendale, and it is only through the fact that Mr. Butler knew the high ideals of Mrs. Dobinson and the kind of plays that she was putting on, and the class of actors that she has engaged for her productions.

"Barnum Was Right" opens on Monday night, and next week is to be known as "guest week" in honor of Mr. Butler's coming. Many parties both from Hollywood and Los Angeles are being formed and celebrities of stage and screen are expected to be present on Monday night.

THE GATEWAY

Elliot Roth, who makes his debut in the James Cruze Paramount production, "Merton of the Movies," starring Glenn Hunter, now thanks Mary Pickford for his advent into motion pictures.

At the age of nine he happened to be living with his parents near the Pickford home in Los Angeles. His playmate was a little girl in the neighborhood. One afternoon they picked a handful of dandelions and took them to Mary's home. She invited the children in. Roth confided to her that he had worked on the stage but was ambitious to be a picture star. She gave him a bit in her next production, "Rags."

Roth is the son of Nat Roth, the celebrated New York actor, and Lily Fox whose sister, Della Fox, was widely known on the stage before her death. At the age of seven the child worked in "The Blue Bird" in New York, his birthplace, and in other current plays.

He was sent abroad to study art but his inborn love of theatricals drew him back to New York and later to Hollywood. In New York he followed Glenn Hunter in "Clarence" and "Intimate Strangers" and through a peculiar coincidence is now working with Hunter in James Cruze's production of "Merton of the Movies" for Paramount.

He appeared in a number of short subjects for Triart, later had the juvenile lead in Christie's "Hilda From Hollywood," and played the juvenile heavy in "A Little Way Down the Street." He later appeared with Alberta Vaughn in the "Telephone Girl" series.

In "Merton of the Movies" he plays Harold Parmalee, the motion picture star, idol of Glenn Hunter as "Merton." Viola Dana is featured in support of Hunter in "Merton," which is being shown today and Saturday at the Gateway theatre. Others in the supporting cast are Charles Sellon, Charles Ogle, Ethel Wales, Luke Cosgrave, Gale Henry, Frank Jonasson and Eleanor Lawson.

THE GLENDALE

Jack Hoxie in "The Back Trail" opens today at the Glendale theatre.

THE T. D. & L.

Douglas Fairbanks in "The Thief of Bagdad" continues at the T. D. & L. theatre.

RECORD PRICE FOR ATWATER PROPERTY

Fifty-foot Frontage on Los Feliz Is Purchased by R. E. Hubbard; Place Consideration at $12,500

What is believed to be a record price for Los Feliz boulevard property was established yesterday when fifty feet fronting on the north side of the thoroughfare was sold by Shallert & Jones, Hollywood brokers, for $12,500.

The property was purchased by R. E. Hubbard. Although rumors had it that the ground will be improved immediately with a large business block, Mr. Hubbard said that he was undecided, having not yet made up his mind whether to build now or later.

To Establish Nursery

A nursery business is being established by William S. Johnson at the corner of Revere street and Glendale boulevard next to the Tugman & Wilson real estate office. Mr. Johnson is an old-time nurseryman having conducted a nursery in Camden, N. J., for 30 years before coming to Atwater Park.

Bridge Party Tomorrow

A large attendance is expected at the bridge and five-hundred party to be given at the home of Mrs. E. V. Bacon, 3802 Revere street, tomorrow night, under the auspices of the Atwater Parent-Teachers' association. Prizes will be offered for the winners and the funds collected will go to the Parent-Teachers' association fund.

Entertainment Postponed

The "Womanless Wedding" and mock trial that were to be features of an entertainment under the auspices of the Young People's class of the Neighborhood Christian church tonight have been postponed until Friday night, March 13, it was announced by Rev. J. W. Utter, pastor of the church.

Notes Along Realty Row

A. G. Chiek, contractor, has purchased property on Glenmanor place between Glenfelix and Valleybrink and will commence the erection of a five-room stucco house shortly.

Herbert R. Payne, for many years employed as an expert in the Ford Motor works at Detroit, has joined Mrs. Payne in Atwater Park, and has purchased the property at 3444 Gardenside lane where the couple will reside in the future.

J. R. Dixon has started work on a six-room stucco house to be located on Edenhurst avenue between Appleton and Dover streets.

C. A. Riggs will build a four-room stucco residence on his property on Valleybrink near Sunnybrook.

William S. Johnson, owner of a florist shop on Los Feliz road, has closed his business and retired from activity for the present.

Masons Elect Chapman

Frank J. Chapman was elected master of Atwater Masonic lodge last night to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ralph J. Reese. R. F. Brown was elected senior warden in the place of Mr. Chapman. J. A. Herbert was elected junior warden of the lodge when P. E. Lipscomb tendered his resignation of that position.

Glowing tribute to the work of Mr. Reese during the few weeks that he was master of Atwater lodge was paid in a short talk by Mr. Lipscomb. Mr. Reese has been moved to Long Beach by the bank of Italy and has gone to that city to reside.

Plans for an Atwater Masonic temple were presented by the building committee last night when the lodge met at 3218 Glendale boulevard.

Personals From District

Miss Virginia Wheeler, 3987 Glenfeliz place, who has been confined to her home for two weeks with an attack of tonsilitis, is sufficiently recovered to be about once more.

Frank E. Macaully, 3270 Garden avenue, has returned to his office with the California Mortgage Co. in Los Angeles following an attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones, 1030 North Rampart street, who were guests of the Young People's class at the Neighborhood Christian church last Sunday, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton S. Decker on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Webster, well known in the Atwater district, visited friends yesterday. They are now located at Huntington Park.

BENEFIT FOR WAR MOTHERS BACKED

Glendale Endorses Affair To Be Given March 6 For Veterans' Aid

Glendale people are endorsing the benefit to be given the night of March 6 at Broadway High school, under the auspices of Lester Meyer chapter, American War Mothers. Proceeds from the affair will be used by the chapter for work among disabled war veterans, who are now confined to hospitals and sanitariums. The War Mothers are receiving cooperation from leaders of civic and fraternal organizations of the city.

Screen and ring stars will take part in the program. Among them will be Louise Dresser, Tom Mix, Lew Cody, Madge Bellamy, William Desmond, Albert J. Smith, Jess Willard, Jim Jeffries, Rin-Tin-Tin and his owner and trainer, Lieut. Lee Duncan. Others appearing on the program will be Viola Yorba, dancers from the Pearl Keller studio, Keaumoku Louis, Chief Walking Deer and his troupe of Hopi Indian singers and dancers from the Mission Play. The Elks band will play.

Endorsements for the affair come from Mayor Spencer Robinson; T. Watson, commander of the local Legion post; Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, prominent member of the Tuesday Afternoon club; Col. John D. Fraser, chief of police; Earl S. Patterson, exalted ruler, Glendale Elks; Fred Huesman, grand knight of Glendale council, Knights of Columbus.

INCREASE FOR NAVY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The House has passed the $56,000,000 deficiency appropriation bill, carrying $30,000,000 for increase in the navy. A provision of the bill increasing the salary of the secretary to the president from $7500 to $10,000 was knocked out.

PICK MILTON TO WIN RACE SUNDAY

Former National Speedway Champion Expected To Cross Line First

The wise ones along gasoline row are picking Tommy Milton, twice winner of the Indianapolis race, former national speedway champion, and a topnotch driver, as the man who will cross the finish line first in the opening 250-mile race of the A. A. A. Sunday at Culver City. Milton, it has developed, was leading the field last Sunday at Culver City, when the speed merchants were flagged down by Starter Fred Wagner, after three cars had piled up.

The famous "27" car, driven last Sunday by Frank Elliott, and which hit the lower guard rail on the first turn about the same time Stuart Wilkinson and his Durant Special backed into the upper guard rail, will be back in the race next Sunday, it has been announced. The name of the driver for the white streak has not been made known. Doc Shattuc's mount, which also became affectionate with the lower guard rail, will be repaired in time to permit the Kentucky medico to get in a little practice before whirling around the boards with the other speed demons.

Bennett Hill, winner of the opening race at the speedway last December, and Harry Hartz, a couple of nervy drivers, are expected to provide the greatest thrills next Sunday. These two drivers thrilled the spectators last Sunday with a sensational brush on the straightaway in front of the main grandstand, and both have vowed to battle for the lead in the next race.

Speedway officials have announced ticket stubs for last Sunday's race will be honored for admission Sunday at the Speedway. The race is scheduled to get under way at 2 o'clock.

RINGSIDE GOSSIP by FAIR PLAY

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1925

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—George K. O. Chaney of Baltimore is one of those pathetic figures in the prize ring, a boy who can sock with deadly vigor and yet not take a sock himself. Evidently when Chaney steps into the ring it is a question whether he puts his man away or is stowed away himself.

In the meantime the 7½ per cent which the lightweights appearing in the New York tourney are getting is not making money for them to any extent. They could go up the state and fight bums and make about as much.

Paddy Mullins' wails over the money O'Brien got are said to have resounded throughout a large area of the city. Mullins, by the way, tells of the time when they tried to ring Harry Wills into an elimination tourney, this one composed of colored heavy weights.

Wills was asked to enter and his manager promptly wired the enterprising promoter that Wills was the champion of the race and suggested that the tournament be held without Wills who would be happy to meet the winner.

The winner was Clem Johnson and Wills stowed him away in a round.

Joe Benjamin's victory over Silvers out on the west coast was popular in the east where Joe is one of the most popular kids who ever appeared in a ring.

ENGEL DEFEATED

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Heine Engel's carelessness was blamed today for his defeat, partially by by default, at the hands of Lou Talaber, world's middleweight wrestling champion, here last night.

JOHN B. FOSTER'S VIEWS

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1925.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Stopping off between trains on the way to the Pacific coast where his annual tour of the training camps starts this year, the writer dropped in on Kenesaw Mountain Landis, high commissioner of baseball, and now is in a position to state that the season of 1925 is in full swing.

The commissioner is in a high state of excitement over what he predicts is going to be an even more exciting season than 1924, and the writer left him sniffing the springy air and vowing that—despite the fact that he is just back from a vacation tour—he is going to grab a few more days and visit some of the training camps himself.

"There is no reason of which I can think," said Commissioner Landis, "why the coming season of our national game should not be the most successful of any since I have been privileged to have a direct part in the councils of the sport.

"So you are going to visit the training camps—I wish I were going." (The early spring day had not yet fully got in its work at this point).

"I like the training camps," this supposedly austere high commissioner went on wistfully. "I like them beyond measure. I like to hear the boys talk about what they are doing and what they expect to do, and I like to watch them and speculate a little myself on what the old fellows can do and what the younger ones—the boys who are getting their first taste of big league baseball life—may do.

"I am just fan enough to indulge my theories a little as to what each individual has in him. Who would deprive the baseball lover of this gentle amusement? I may get some of them wrong—probably do. But there are others who size them up wrong some times.

"There is an atmosphere about the training camps that is one of pleasant anticipation. All expectations are not realized, perhaps, and I venture to say there are managers who can do more quiet conversing with themselves when things fail to break right than an army mule driver can do when his team balks.

"We are going to see some great baseball. Both major leagues are fortified for it. We had splendid races in 1924, with a splendid climax. I am no prophet, nor son of a prophet, but if we don't have more exciting baseball in 1925 than we had even last year, then I will never be prophet nor son of one.

"I am not saying there will be better baseball. All baseball is good. Some games are more exciting than others. This year we'll have plenty of the exciting games. How can it be otherwise when you look the field over and see what is in sight. And there are likely to be some surprises this year that will give all of us a chance to express our astonishment. What youngster may step to the fore and upset the plans of the men who think out the campaigns, and what player who has given promise for some time may suddenly spring out of the ruck and astonish the baseball world with his skill? Didn't Bucky Harris do it last year?

"The bright outlook is not confined to the major leagues either, by any means. There will be more baseball in the minors this season of the kind that stands the fans on their toes and relieves itself by expressing its joy in shouts that can be heard in the next county, than baseball has heard since the boys have been playing it. That is true of all sections—south, far west, middle west and far northwest.

"They tell me that a big finish in baseball always means a big season the year after. Didn't we have the big finish last season? Aren't we booked for another this season? I'll say we are.

"I'm going to the training camps! You've got me all fired up. It's pretty near time for somebody to shout 'Play Ball!'"

STATE CHAMPIONS WILL PLAY HERE

Glendale Caseys To Meet L. A. Team at Local Park Sunday

Baseball fans who are present at the local ball park on San Fernando road Sunday afternoon will be assured of seeing a snappy ball game when the Glendale Caseys, state champions, meet the Los Angeles K. C. council team in a scheduled league game. Los Angeles almost wrecked the hopes of the locals during the first half of the season, Glendale winning in the ninth inning, 2 to 1.

Intent upon putting a stop to the winning streak of the Glendale Caseys, the Los Angeles team is coming to Glendale Sunday determined to win, or go down fighting hard. They have reinforced their team with some high-class ballplayers, according to advance dope from the metropolitan camp, and will give the locals a hard struggle.

It will be Myers' last game with the state champions. The plucky catcher, whose work behind the log and with the bat has been a contributing factor in the nine straight victories the Caseys have piled up, will leave next week for the Texas training camp of the Casaba Western League club. Myers played last season in the Mink league with Muskegon but last week he was notified that he had been sold to the Omaha club. McDonald will pitch for Glendale, with the lineup unchanged, Manager Harry Manush announces.

BOXING NOTES

The Smokehouse crew, captained by Paul Leuthner, walloped the Palace Barber shop team in a Mercantile league match last night at the Recreation alleys. Barrick of the winners rolled 208 for high score, with Leuthner second at 207.

The Coast to Coast Army store team took two out of three games in the Mercantile league match played against the Glendale Bootery. Martin of the winners rolled high score of 233. The scores:

TO-NIGHT'S CARD

A packed house will greet Ace Hudkins and Pat Mills, lightweights, when they start their ten-round main event tonight at the Hollywood American Legion stadium. The winner of tonight's battle will meet Joe Benjamin, who took the decision from Jack Silver last Monday at Oakland, to determine the coast's representative in the lightweight tournament now under way in New York.

Harvey Perkins and Ray Neuman meet in the semi-windup, six rounds. Eddie Diggins and Joe Trabon are billed for six rounds. Kid Blackie and Johnny Villaflores are down for four rounds, and Johnny Godinas and Harry Soo will open the show with four rounds.

LAWRENCE PERRY SAYS

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1925

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Pennsylvania football authorities are going to put into effect an innovation which will be watched with interest by everyone who is interested in the training and conditioning of gridiron players.

Football practice will begin on March 1 and will continue without interruption till the spring term ends in June. Then the squad will not foregather until the University opens. This is in accordance with an agreement made with Yale when representatives of the two universities arranged their football date for 1925.

Just how the players will react to a long spring session of football practice remains to be seen. There is a theory in some quarters that more harm than good will come of the scheme, and from comments of more than one Pennsylvania player it is clear fear exists that they may be altogether fed up with the sport.

This may happen and if it does the bad effects may be evident in the football season which follows. On the other hand, it may be found that the players will be endowed with a poise and a proficiency that are almost professional.

In any event, the experiment is an interesting one and if it proves successful there may be a general revision of ideas concerning football practice throughout the country.

While Michigan alumni and athletic authorities are discussing the project of an enlarged stadium at Ferry field, or a new and commodious amphitheatre, somewhere else, it is a fact that nothing at all can be done in the face of the announced attitude of the board of regents of the university, which is dead against such a plan.

So evidently the first thing that will have to be done will be to get the regents, if possible, to reconsider their attitude. The strongest argument that can be brought to bear to this end will, of course, be the inadequacy of the present structure to seat all who wish to attend football games.

At the same time, it is pointed out that Ann Arbor is too small to take care of crowds of the size that are drawn to the present stadium. Yet there is the fact that the present stands do not meet the demands of Michigan's constituency, let alone the general public.

It is rather a vexing problem, a problem that is not rendered easier by the inquiry of the Michigan alumnus, the official graduate organ of the university as to just "what is the constituency of a state university."

In the meantime, three plans are being discussed, viz: The enlargement of the present Ferry field by the addition perhaps of an upper tier. 2.—The digging of a bowl on some other site. 3.—The construction of a new stadium on some site away from Ferry field.

Wilson Wins Casaba Game With Pasadena

The Wilson Intermediate school Pioneers defeated the Pasadena Presbyterian Pioneers, 23 to 10, in the second of a series of three basketball games. The contest was played at Pasadena. Sherman was high-point man, making seventeen points, including five free throws out of five attempts. The first game was won by Pasadena, 24 to 12, and the third and deciding game will be played next Friday night. The Wilson lineup was: Sherman and Davis, forwards; Forrester, center; Demmitt and Wilkins, guards; Regan, substitute.

Ace Hudkins May Meet Kaplan In Coast Ring

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—Ace Hudkins, the sensational Nebraska lightweight, will probably box Kid Kaplan, featherweight champion of the world, here shortly. Hudkins claimed today he could make 133 pounds for Kaplan, and promoters were said to look with favor on the match. Pat Mills of England and Hudkins box ten rounds at Hollywood arena tonight.

Evening News To Give Full Hoop Account

On the sports page of The Glendale Evening News tomorrow will appear a complete summary of the first round of play in the Glendale Merchants' basketball league. The summary will show the results of the six-weeks' playing, standing of the teams, average points per game for each team and opponents, total points made by each team during the first round, as well as the points made by opponents, individual scoring records and the schedule for the second round. Complete accounts of the games played during the first round have appeared exclusively on the sports page of The Glendale Evening News during the past six weeks. These stories have been a part of the COMPLETE and accurate sports service furnished Glendale by The Glendale Evening News, second to none in its field.

TRACK SQUAD IN MEET AT CITRUS

Dynamiters Meet Lemons And Riverside Today; Oxy Frosh Tuesday

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, JR.
Of The Evening News Staff.

Two important track meets are on the slate for the local high school team during the next few days. This afternoon at Citrus, the Lemons, Glendale, and Riverside are taking part in a triangular meet while the Dynamiters mix with the Oxy Frosh Tuesday at Occidental college.

With the help of the interclass track meet held at the school, Coach Hayhurst has been able to train and discover a host of material, which he hopes to mold into one of the best track teams that Glendale High has had.

The Occidental meet was called for last Friday but was postponed on account of rain. As the Freshies have a first rate team the locals expect to have plenty of competition.

First Real Meet

Today's meet is the first practice meet for the locals. Although little is known of Citrus, it is said that the Riverside boys boast of a mean bunch. Their miler was last year's state champion and at the present time holds the Southern California record.

Glendale ought to show well in the weights, the discus, the 880, and the 440. Maydwell is Glendale's standby in the last two named, while Bradbury, Lundie, Squires and de Parcq are good in the weights. Squires has sent the discus 115 feet several times. Purdy is expected to clean up a few points for Glendale in the dashes.

Psychologist To Open Free Lecture Course

Henriette Jodar, psychologist and psycho-analyst will give the first of a series of lectures in Glendale Sunday night, March 1, on "Practical Psychology." Mrs. Jodar's long experience as a teacher and her experience as a lecturer along with many years spent in the business world combined with a thorough understanding of the natural laws governing the ives of human beings have given her a rare opportunity to work out methods whereby those who follow her may attain true and complete self-knowledge and self-mastery, it is declared. She teaches her pupils to live so as to bring about a mastery over physical conditions of body and circumstances.

Mrs. Jodar has recently closed a lecture course in Pasadena which acclaimed her the most interesting and practical teacher of psychology that has visited Pasadena for years. The series in Glendale will consist of eight free lectures.

One explanation of the modern girl is that she learned how to handle a typewriter instead of a frying pan.

DELANEY WINS BY K. O. IN FOURTH

Another Riot Marks Battle In New York As Final Round Staged Twice

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A riot a day keeps the customers gay. Authorized boxing in this state staged its third near-riot within a matter of four days last night, when Referee Patsy Haley indicated his intention of disqualifying Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, Conn., in the fourth round for hitting Tiger Flowers, Atlanta colored gent, while the latter rested on one knee.

Irate fans rushed the ringside, a nightly pastime nowadays, and ugly threats were hurled at the official as he sidled along the ropes and took counsel with judges and boxing commissioners.

Special police sprang into action and held the clamoring citizens at bay while those in the rear continued to push forward, charging over empty chairs and the more sedate customers.

Says Double Foul

A serious situation was averted when the referee came out of a conference to announce that a double foul had been committed, since Flowers had been guilty of the original breach of the code by dropping to his knees without being hit. He had seen Delaney coming and knew what a good deacon of the church should do in the circumstances.

The round was ordered fought over again and this time Delaney slapped the deacon for the count with a right to the jaw after one minute and five seconds following the resumption of hostilities.

It was a gala night for the reform element, which has viewed with due appreciation the spectacle of a fight crowd running amuck no less than three times during the current week.

BURBANK NEWS

BURBANK, Feb. 27.—Three sites for new school buildings have been purchased with the proceeds of the last bond issue for grade schools, it is announced by L. F. Collins, superintendent of city schools.

One of the new sites is in the Magnolia Park tract, where the school board has purchased from E. L. White twenty-two lots, or a little more than five acres. This lies between Magnolia boulevard and Clark street and one block north of Hollywood way. The price of $500 a lot includes pavements and sidewalks.

Five acres between Ash and Valencia streets and Victory boulevard and Main street is the location of another school site to accommodate the children of the southeast section. This ground was bought from A. J. Schmidt for the sum of $2600 per acre.

A third plot of ground lately acquired by the school board is one of a little more than five acres that lies on the south side of Ontario street, a short distance west of Burbank boulevard and a short distance north of Hollywood way. This was purchased by A. Dymond for $2000 per acre.

The exact number of people living in Burbank, as shown by the final check on the census taken last week, is 11,509, announces F. S. Webster, city clerk and director of census. This figure will become the official population total, he states, and will stand until the federal census of 1930.

The first papers for the sale of Mayor J. C. Crawford's residence at the corner of Magnolia avenue and Hollywood way, have been signed, is the report, the transfer being to a Hollywood financier.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Young and Mrs. C. M. Knox were among Burbank folk who enjoyed the Orange Show at San Bernardino on Sunday.

'GAS' PRODUCTION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The production of gasoline in the United States in 1924 totaled 8,959,680,220 gallons, the largest annual output in history, the interior department announced today. The total exceeded by 1,403,735,077 the previous high record, set in 1923.

BETTER BUILT HOMES—Not Merely Houses

The first plan in our book of designs
Style 495 shown here was accorded the honor of occupying first place in our 100-page book of choice California homes. It is one of the finest designs we have ever seen and has been favorably commented upon by scores of leading architects thruout the country. It has traits of modified Colonial architecture and is ideally planned. It contains a 14x20 living room with hearth, the front door opening into a little entry nook. The plan also contains a dining room with buffet, two bedrooms, a kitchen and breakfast nook with built-in features and rear screen porch, bath and hall with linen and storage closets. 125 other plans are also shown in the book which sells for 50c. Ocean Liner With 500 Tourists Goes Aground

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The gigantic White Star liner Adriatic, bound for a Mediterranean cruise with 500 tourists on board, went aground yesterday on a mud bank off Bay Ridge, shortly after she sailed from her pier. The vessel was imprisoned over four hours but was able to be floated by the efforts of tugs and a high tide and continued on its way.

Philippine Landslide Buries Family in Home

MANILA, Feb. 27.—A landslide in Albay province buried the home of a native family, killing seven.

AT LA CRESCENTA

LA CRESCENTA, Feb. 27.—Plans for the new club home of the La Crescenta Valley Women's club were presented at the meeting yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Harvey Bissell, chairman of the building committee. The first unit, according to the plans, will be thirty by seventy feet for the main floor, with two wings one nine by twelve feet and the other twenty-one by twenty-one. At the upper end, on the west side of the main floor, will be dressing and check rooms. A fireplace will occupy the north end of the large room. The plans were unanimously adopted. Bids will be received soon.

There will be a cooked food sale on Saturday, March 7, in the Sam Seelig store, at the corner of Michigan and Los Angeles avenues, the proceeds to go toward the building fund.

Mrs. Charles Turck, president, and Mrs. Howard Reynolds will go as delegates to the federation meetings in Santa Barbara on April 15. Mrs. Haskins was chosen as alternate for the president. Better Speech week and Better Homes week will be observed next week.

A vote of thanks was extended Mrs. H. Bissell for her work as chairman of the building committee, and to other members of the board. At the conclusion of the business meeting tea was served by the hostesses, Mesdames E. B. Nettleton, A. W. Brown, Thomas, and Harvey Bissell.

The last meeting of the month of the Parent-Teacher association reading circle was celebrated with a luncheon. Women of Highway Highlands were hostesses. Meeting at 10 o'clock, the members of the physical-culture class were instructed in exercises by Mrs. G. Hansen. At 11 o'clock the reading circle was called to order by Mrs. Vernon Hall. Minutes of the previous meeting were read. McKeever's "Training of the Boy and Girl" was read. Luncheon, with tables decorated in red, white and blue flowers and flags, was served. Place cards, with appropriate verses by Mrs. A. E. Hopkins, were at each cover. Mrs. W. C. Angier, president of the Parent-Teacher association, offered a toast to Mrs. R. Q. MacDonald, hostess of the month, for the splendid work she has done during her term. At 2 o'clock adjournment was made, so the members could attend the regular meeting of the Women's club of La Crescenta valley. Mrs. Virma Harmon Walker will be hostess at the next meeting, at her home on East Prospect avenue.

Mrs. A. B. Cochran and her house guest, Mrs. G. G. Sands of Venice, attended the Orange show at San Bernardino.

Members of the Guild of St. Luke's Episcopal church met yesterday afternoon with Canon Renison to discuss the Lenten program. Sixteen members were present. Each week Canon Renison will be here on Wednesday (with the exceptions of the weeks the club meets), to give instructions in Lenten subjects; also to instruct the children who are to be confirmed by the bishop next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Van Duesen motored to Laguna for a stay at their summer home.

The Women's club of La Crescenta valley will give another of their popular monthly dances Saturday night, at the schoolhouse.

As the fishing season flashes by, we wait with evergrowing impatience for a strike vote of paragraphers.

FROM EAGLE ROCK

EAGLE ROCK, Feb. 27.—The Professional and Business Women's club met last night at the home of Mrs. Mary Fiske of Caspar avenue, where a dinner was served. Later the members adjourned to the Congregational church and enjoyed a program.

Mrs. Carl Bruce Wood entertained recently at her home 5252 North Townsend avenue with a shower in honor of Miss Thelma Gray, who is to marry James Bloom. The house was decorated in honor of the occasion. The gifts were presented in a unique fashion on the tea wagon, which was made to represent a huge red heart. Cards were played in the afternoon, Mrs. Claude Prescott winning the prize.

Those present beside the hostess and guest of honor were Misses Evangeline Bhloom, Katharine Phinney, Barbar Neff, Laura Merriman, Margaret Dunn, Lois Jean Wiggins and the Mesdames Clifford Hill, Jerry Wilson, Claude Prescott, Sumner Bryant, Irwin Davis, John H. Goss and V. Gray.

A number of new volumes of high class fiction have recently been added to the Eagle Rock branch of the Los Angeles Public Library, announces Mrs. Blanche A. Gardiner, librarian. Following is a partial list:

Sedgwick, "Little French Girl." Galsworthy, "White Monkey." Kyne, "Enchanted Hill." Ferber, "So Big." Lincoln, "Rugged Water." Curwood, "Gentlemen of Courage." Forster, "Passage to India." Bailey, "Peacock Feathers." Waller, "Deep in the Hearts of Men." Locke, "Coming of Amos." Miln, "In a Shantung Garden." Richmond, "Red of the Redfields." Dell, "Unknown Quantity." Johnston, "Slave Ship." Ertz, "Nina." Wilson, "Professor, How Could You?" Walpole, "Old Ladies." Oppenheim, "Passionate Quest." McCutcheon, "East of the Setting Sun." Cross, "Golden Cocoon."

There will be an open forum meeting on Tuesday, March 10, at 8 o'clock, at the Eagle Rock school auditorium, Chickasaw avenue. Various community problems will be discussed and there will be a showing of the film, "The Giant of the Hills," by the Bureau of Power and Light.

The automobile booster plates have been delivered in Eagle Rock and will be sold at thirty-five cents a pair. They may be had at the Pearl Motor company, the Eagle Rock Tire shop and the McLean Motor Sales company.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Rhodes of San Diego, groom and bride, were honor guests recently when Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hamners of Colorado boulevard entertained for them.

Federal Reserve Bank Lifts Rediscount Rate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Federal Reserve board authorized the Federal Reserve bank of New York to increase its re-discount rate from 3 to 3½ per cent on all classes of paper of all maturities. Officials anticipate that other reserve banks throughout the country will follow the New York bank in increasing the rate.

Twin Barons Visitors Here From Holland

leisurely around the world, and in their journeys have encountered a number of persons who have told them about "the fastest growing city in America." While in Fresno recently, they heard John Brown speak, and several days ago Evangelist Brown invited them to come to Glendale. They will be here several days, the barons announced.

The Quarles Van Ufford family name originated in Scotland, where the town of Van Ufford was named after their ancestors, but in 1600 the family moved to Holland, the barons said. The family estate and castle are located at Ginneken, near Freda.

Secretary to Prince

Their brother, O. J. Quarles Van Ufford, is secretary to Prince Henry of Holland, and their cousin, Baron Y. Quarles Van Ufford, is governor of Zeeland, an island province of Holland. The twins are alike as two peas, and, after touring about the United States, will leave for Alaska as soon as the northern passages are open, they said.

The brothers are touring the country in their Buick sedan, which they say is one of the few popular cars in their native country. Some interesting facts concerning the automobile industry in Holland were given by one of the brothers.

"Only the real rich in Holland can afford automobiles," he said, "because every owner of a car must employ a chauffeur. This is necessary because, when a person leaves his car standing at the curb, if the chauffeur is not sitting on the front seat, the car would be filled with curious people in a few minutes. Then, the cost is very high. The Ford car, in Holland, costs nearly $1000, and other cars are much higher. Holland has no parking laws, on account of the narrow streets."

Children Are Barred

There are no holdups on the streets of Holland towns and cities, one of the brothers said, due to a law which prohibits children under 18 years of age from attending motion-picture theatres. Children can attend the operas, concerts and dramas, but all theatres bar them if they are not 18 years old, he said. This law was passed by the rulers, he said, to keep the children from becoming familiar with holdup methods and other criminal acts.

Prohibition will never become effective in Holland, they said. The brothers like the United States and the American people, and are planning on locating somewhere in California, they said, probably starting in business near Sacramento. They are stopping at the Brand hotel.

REALTOR WINDOW DISPLAY SUCCESS

Miniature Stone Rancho At Twining & Myers Gets Much Attention

The miniature of a stone rancho in the window of Twining & Myers, realtors, 108 West Broadway, is attracting unusual attention. The work is by George Harris of Tujunga, exponent of natural landscape and "the glorified shack." It is built to scale, according to W. L. Twining.

The model represents a little home in the Verdugo foothills and shows in minute detail the possibilities offered in a blend of artistic architecture and landscaping. Mr. Harris is known throughout America for his work and is the builder of the Little Landers clubhouse and many other novel structures.

"This miniature rancho in our window has brought scores of inquiries as to sites where such homes may be built," says Mr. Twining, "and many have wanted to know more about this original genius, George Harris, who paints beautiful pictures with cobblestones and wood. From a humble fisherman's cabin by the sea to a great, rambling mountain lodge, he is supreme in this line of work. Newspapers and magazines have printed many pictures of his architectural and landscaping creations in the past five years."

Days of Gold to Be Featured In Glendale

these are to be given away to lucky number holders during the nights of the party.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the show tonight, when thousands of Glendalians and residents of the upper valley are expected to attend, R. E. Johnston, toparch of Glendale pyramid Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots, announced. A large corps of Sciot officials will have charge of the fun and merrymaking and promise a "hilarious time." The show will proceed tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night, and possibly Monday and Tuesday, it was stated.

Large Dance Floor

The tent under which the "'49" celebration is to take place is the largest canvas spread ever seen in Glendale. Powerful electric lights set from the top of the tent will give daylight illumination at all hours. The largest dancing floor in Southern California has been built, and a special Sciot orchestra will furnish the music for dancing.

Old-fashioned bars draped in the shade that is the absence of all color since the advent of Mr. Volsted to the Hall of Fame, will be seen once more. Amusement booths will line the entire length of the tent on either side.

Each admission to the tent will be accompanied by one million dollars of Sciot money, good at any of the "gambling" concessions. A special attraction will be Eddie Gamble, nationally-known clown and funmaker, who will disport in the huge crowd during the entertainment. An attendant will be provided to care for the younger children while their parents are taking in the more strenuous part of the night's frolic, Toparch Johnston announced.

SEATS TO SHRINE COUNCIL ON SALE

Glendale Members Urged To Arrange Now For Big Gathering In June

Glendale Shriners who desire seats in the Stadium in Los Angeles during the fifty-first annual session of the Imperial Council, Mystic Shrine, to be held the first week in June, should make reservations now, according to an announcement today by Dr. F. R. Gartley, secretary of the Glendale Shrine club. Application for tickets to the stadium should be made to Dr. Gartley, located at Room 205 Security building, either by telephone or in person, not later than tomorrow.

All parades, drills, songs and displays during the Imperial Council session will take place at the stadium, where there are seats for 80,000 persons, Dr. Gartley said. More than 250,000 are expected to attend the event. The Glendale Shrine club will secure tickets for all Shriners, whether members of the local club or not, Dr. Gartley stated.

LEGION NOTES

Commander A. E. Baron and a delegation from Verdugo Hills Post No. 288, at Montrose, will visit Benjamin J. Bowie Post No. 228, Los Angeles, on Monday night. The delegates will assemble at the Montrose drug store and leave at 7:15 o'clock Monday night in automobiles.

The next regular meeting of the Verdugo Hills post will be held Wednesday night at the Sparr Heights Community building. Adjutant J. Benton Wirt, chairman of the annual mess call, will outline plans for the event to be held March 25 at the La Crescenta schoolhouse. Past National Commander John R. Quinn will be the principal speaker at the annual mess call, and department, county and district Legion officers will be present.

Tomorrow afternoon and Sunday morning the members of the post and their friends will assemble at the Legion lot near the corner of Fairway and Rosemont avenues, to prepare the ground for the new Legion building. A. N. Vilmur is chairman of the building committee and will be in charge of the clearing work.

Soaring Hog Market Hits Season's Top

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—The soaring hog market here hit a new season's top at $12.35 today on active buying which a fresh supply of 29,000 failed to check. Today's advance was 10 to 15 cents above yesterday's close.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 27.—Hogs hit $12.25 on the Kansas City market, a new record since 1920.

FINANCIAL EDITOR OPTIMISTS' GUEST

Charles G. Haskell Advises Glendale Cooperation With Los Angeles

Charles G. Haskell, financial editor of the Los Angeles Examiner, nationally-known newspaper man, tod Glendale Optimists at their meeting today that the city of Glendale will do well to tie up very closely to Los Angeles and that the great financial expenditures being made in the metropolis of the Southwest will indirectly benefit Gendale only to the extent that Glendale co-operates and works with the larger city.

The speaker praised the idea of a three-day Spanish Fiesta and carnival to be staged in Glendale. He said he was sure with proper support the project could be carried to a tremendously successful conclusion.

Mr. Haskell charmed his hearers with stories of internationally known personages whom he had known in his years of experience in the newspaper business.

Fiesta Plans Told

William L. Twining and Lon J. Haddock addressed the Optimists and told of plans for the fiesta. The club voted to endorse the fiesta idea.

Dr. H. R. Boyer, president of the club, announced that election of new officers will take place at the meeting next Friday. He also urged that as many as possibly can attend the national convention of Optimist clubs at Dallas, June 4, 5 and 6.

Glenn R. Dolberg, accompanied by Jim Hunter, entertained with a number of song numbers at the meeting, which took place at the Masonic temple at noon.

By unanimous vote, Optimist A. H. Voelker was made "poet laureate" of the local club.

NEW YORK CLOSING

By W. S. COUSINS
For International News Service

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Industrial stocks were under selling pressure today and price trend was generally lower. In this respect the market was in contrast with the grain, cotton, foreign exchange and commodities markets, which showed a disposition to continue the rallies in progress the last two days.

Some disappointment was expressed that the oil stocks and other industrials, which have been comparatively quiet of late, failed to carry the forward movement in prices, and thus allow the rails, motors and equipments a breathing spell. Bulls in the latter group were not disposed to sell their stocks at any great concessions from previous high prices, and the market relapsed into dullness, rather than weakness, shortly after the noon period. Prior to that time, however, a number of new high-price records for the current year had been established, of which Savage Arms, above 107, was the most conspicuous. Remington Typewriter, Certainteed Products and International Combustion Engineering were active at higher prices.

A number of the new-priced motors, including Packard, Jordan and Gardner, were whipped up to higher price levels on rumors that negotiations were pending for the merger of some of these companies with each other and with accessories companies like Briggs Manufacturing. The president of the Packard company denied the reports, but interest in these stocks was well maintained, while high-priced motor shares, like General Motors and Mack Trucks, were under pressure.

Call money opened at 4¼ per cent, but was marked up to 4½ per cent around midday. Loans made today hold over the weekend and the month, and this accounted as much for the firmness in call money as hardening of time money. Sterling and franc exchanges improved as the day advanced, the former helped by rumors of an impending advance in London discount rates.

Western Pacific, Frisco common and a few of the low-priced railroad shares sold in good volume at an advance of one point in the late trading. St. Paul yielded nearly two points on profit-taking and Atchison, New York Central and other high-priced rails showed most of their strength in the first two hours. Shipping stocks were unable to keep up their rally, and, outside of tobacco products, the tobacco shares were irregular.

Sales today, 1,360,900 shares; bonds, $12,798,000.

DECLARED GUILTY

Kinney Kester of 115 South Orange street was found guilty by a jury this morning, in the Glendale police court of Judge Frank H. Lowe, on counts of possessing and transporting liquor on February 5. Judgment will be rendered tomorrow.

The chief objection to the plain people is that some of them are so darned plain.

CLAY PIPE WORK TOLD KIWANIANS

Charles Murphy of Tropico Potteries Gives Talk At Meeting Today

The method of making sewer pipe, the use of clay and the laying of the Glendale and Los Angeles sewers were explained by Charles Murphy of the Tropico Potteries, in an illustrated talk delivered at the meeting of the Glendale Kiwanis club, held today noon at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse. Motion pictures showing ancient clay pipes, mining the clay, machinery at the Tropico plant, and the process of laying sewer pipe, were shown in connection with the address.

Clay pipe was first made in California over 200 years ago, Mr. Murphy said. The founders of missions in this state taught the Indians how to model clay and use it for various purposes, and water was brought to the missions for miles in clay pipes, he said. Clay tablets thousands of years old have been found, while clay pipe used in the time of Babylon is in perfect condition today, he said.

President Frank L. Fox presided at the meeting and announced the meeting next week would be given over to business, being the first meeting of the month.

Tell Fiesta Plans

Plans for a three-day Spanish fiesta to be held in September, were outlined by Lon Haddock. He said it was planned to have the fiesta open the day before Admission Day and last until the day after Admission Day, when the seventy-fifth anniversary of the state will be celebrated. The club will send representatives to the meeting Tuesday night when the fiesta committee will be organized. The speaker was introduced by W. L. Twining.

Secretary Burton McGinnis read a telegram from St. Paul relative to the ninth annual convention June 22 to 25. An ice palace will be constructed, according to the telegram, and water sports will prevail in midsummer. A. L. Baird told of the attendance contest to start March 2 and last until May 19.

A special train will be run from this zone to St. Paul in June, Charles Cobb, of Pasadena, said. Mr. Cobb will have charge of the train, which will make a stop at Grand Canyon and Kansas City. Mr. Cobb has been in charge of convention trains for a number of years.

The Glee club, composed of Allan Fairchild, George Lyons, Elwood Ingledue, Mayor Robinson, Ole Andresen, E. P. Hayward, Park Arnold, W. A. Horn and John D. Fraser, sang several numbers. William Bode directed the singing with Mrs. George Lyons at the piano. The attendance prize, donated by Charles Stuart, was won by Fred Deal.

'Bill' Bode Honored

Cigars were passed commemorating the arrival of a daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. William Bode this morning, February 27, 1925. Several "appropriate" attendance prizes were awarded Mr. Bode.

Visiting Kiwanians present today were: Fred Maynard, Lankershim; D. R. Edwards, Huntington Park; Chester A. Parker, South Pasadena; Charles Cobb, Pasadena, and Edward Lynch, Los Angeles.

Herbert Parker outlined plans for an attendance contest to be staged by the club, starting next week. Majors for the two teams and full details will be named in the letter next week, he said. Bert P. Woodard spoke on the fight to secure lower rates on the Pacific Electric between Los Angeles and Glendale. Action was deferred until next week.

Council Minutes

Minutes of the Glendale City Council, Prepared by City Clerk

Minutes of the City Council, city of Glendale, for February 26, 1925.

Council assembled at 10 a. m. All members present. Minutes of February 24 read and approved.

In accordance with call, bids were publicly opened, examined and declared for the purchase of $60,000 Glendale fire department bonds, election 1924, from the following bidders:

Dean-Witter & Co., Banks, Huntley & Co., First Securities Co., Bank of Italy, William R. Staats Co., Security Co., Harris Trust & Savings Bank, Anglo London Paris Co., California Securities Co.

Moved by Councilman Gilhuly, seconded by Councilman MacBain, duly carried, that bids be referred to city manager for checking and report.

City manager recommended.

Moved by Councilman Gilhuly, seconded by Councilman Kimlin, duly carried, that the following resolution be adopted: "Resolved, by the council of the city of Glendale that the bid of Dean-Witter & Co. of par, accrued interest to date of delivery and a premium of $2808 for $60,000, 5 per cent fire department bonds of the city of Glendale be accepted and all other bids rejected, and that the checks of all unsuccessful bidders be immediately returned to them by city clerk."

Improve Streets

In accordance with call, bids were publicly opened, examined and declared for the improvement of Cypress street, Glendale avenue east, from the following bidders: Hugh Cornwell, John W. Henderson, C. L. Hill, E. L. Fleming.

Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, duly carried, that bids be referred to city engineer for checking and report.

In accordance with call, bids were publicly opened, examined and declared for the improvement of Ruberta avenue, San Fernando road to Glenoaks boulevard, from the following bidders: John W. Henderson, C. L. Hill, Hugh Cornwell, E. L. Fleming.

Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Kimlin, duly carried, that bids be referred to city engineer for checking and report.

Councilman Kimlin introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution adopting map of tract No. 4709 and accepting on behalf of the public the avenues, streets, alleys, and public places shown thereon," which was read, and on his motion, seconded by Councilman MacBain, the same was numbered resolution No. 2772 and adopted.

Councilman Gilhuly introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution adopting map of tract No. 5086 and accepting on behalf of the public the avenues, streets, alleys and public places shown thereon," which was read, and on his motion seconded by Councilman Kimlin, the same was numbered resolution No. 2773 and adopted.

Hearings

Clerk informed the council that this was the time, hour and place fixed for hearing protests or objections against the proposed improvement, or the extent of the district to be assessed for the improvement of portions of Industrial street in the city of Glendale as particularly described in resolution of intention No. 2746, passed by the said council February 5, 1925, and the clerk also reported to the council that he had not received any written protests or objections up to the time set for the hearing. Whereupon the mayor asked if there were any interested persons present who desired to be heard, and all interested persons having been given full opportunity to show cause why the proposed improvement should not be carried out in accordance with the said resolution of intention, and all objections having been heard and considered; on motion of Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, duly carried, all protests were denied. Whereupon Councilman Davis introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution of the council of the city of Glendale ordering certain improvements to be made on portions of Industrial street, Grand View avenue, an unnamed street adjacent to the northwesterly line of lot 7, block 96, Rancho Providencia and Scott tract, as per map recorded in book 43, pages 47 to 59 inclusive, miscellaneous records of Los Angeles county, California, and a certain right-of-way owned by the city of Glendale, in the city of Glendale," which was read, and on his motion seconded by Councilman MacBain, the same was ordered numbered resolution No. 2774 and adopted.

Clerk informed the council that this was the time for continued hearing when all persons interested might appear and state their objections, if any, against any action of the council of the city of Glendale to determine the aggregate amount of unpaid assessments for the improvement of El Rito avenue and other streets in said city, as more particularly described in resolution of intention No. 2369, passed by the said council April 24, 1924, providing for the issuance of bonds therefor, and prescribing their denomination, and the clerk also reported that he had received amended protests from Geo. J. Mathias, Milton A. Cryderman and others. Moved by Councilman MacBain, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, that hearing be continued until March 5.

Clerk informed the council that this was the time set for hearing to remove from industrial district, lots 11 to 39 both inclusive of tract No. 5086. Clerk reported no protests received and there were no protestants present. Same having been referred to the City Planning commission, was returned with recommendation that request be granted. Moved by Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, duly carried, that city attorney be instructed to draft the necessary amendment.

A protest against the changing of the name of Sycamore Canyon road to Chevy Chase drive signed by C. S. Yarbrough and Grace S. Yarbrough, was read, and upon motion, seconded and duly carried, was ordered filed.

A petition signed by property owners, urging the council to install Union Metal standards on Colorado boulevard, was read and on motion, seconded and duly carried, ordered filed. Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman MacBain, that city attorney and city engineer be instructed to institute proceedings for the installation of city made light standards on Colorado boulevard from east to west city limits, with the exception of property in front of the schoolhouses and between Brand boulevard and Central avenue.

W. P. Elliott addressed the council, regarding the heavy loads crossing the Pacific avenue bridge, and the condition of the same. Mr. Elliott was informed that street department had already received orders to make necessary temporary repairs.

The matter of protest against Humane society headquarters, referred to city manager at a former meeting, was upon motion, seconded and duly carried, continued for one week.

Planning Commission

Moved by Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Councilman Davis, duly carried, that S. C. Kinch be appointed to succeed himself as a member of the City Planning commission.

Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman MacBain, duly carried, that J. H. Randall be appointed to succeed himself as member of the City Planning commission.

Moved by Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Councilman MacBain, duly carried, that applecation of Harry T. Currier for refund in the sum of $1 for cesspool permit be allowed and so ordered.

Moved by Councilman Gilhuly, seconded by Councilman MacBain, duly carried, that application of Sallie B. Sauvel for refund in the sum of $3.50 for building permit, be allowed and so ordered.

Moved by Councilman MacBain, seconded by Councilman Kimlin, duly carried, that the sum of $2275 be transferred from the unappropriated reserve for the purchase of a road roller.

Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, duly carried, that city clerk be instructed to advertise for bids for the purchase of a five-ton road roller.

The ordinance entitled, "An ordinance amending ordinance No. 529, passed January 12, 1922, and entitled, "An ordinance of the city of Glendale establishing a residential district, an industrial district and four commercial districts in said city; regulating and restricting the location and locations of and the maintenance and carrying on of industries, trades and businesses in said city; providing for a 'residential, industrial and commercial district map' of said city; prescribing the penalty for the violation hereof; and repealing certain ordinances," by adding thereto a new section to be numbered section 4aa32," which was introduced February 19, 1925, was read, and on motion of Councilman Gilhuly, seconded by Councilman Davis, said ordinance was passed and numbered ordinance No. 1039.

The ordinance entitled, "An ordinance of the council of the city of Glendale changing the name of Sycamore Canyon road to Chevy Chase drive, within said city," which was introduced February 19, 1925, was read, and on motion of Councilman Davis, secsaid ordinance was passed and numbered ordinance No. 1040.

Ordinance Offered

Councilman Davis introduced an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance providing certain regulations for sewer connections," which was read and laid on the table.

Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Kimlin, duly carried, that meeting be adjourned.

Club Members To Take Hike In Verdugo Hills

Mrs. Virginia Farr, chairman of hiking for the Women's Athletic club, announces a hike for Tuesday, March 3. The members will meet at Harvard High school at 10 o'clock and motor to the Farr cabin at Tujunga, where Mrs. Farr will suggest several hikes which may be taken. Hikers are requested to take lunch, cup and spoon and to dress in hiking suits. Any member who does not plan to take the hike will be welcome to remain at Mrs. Farr's cabin. Any information regarding the hike may be obtained by calling Mrs. Farr at Glendale 2975-J.

FIESTA PLANS TO COME UP AT MEET

Representatives of All Civic Bodies Call Meeting For Tuesday

Representatives of all service clubs, Glendale Chamber of Commerce, the Realty board and others will meet Tuesday night to crystallize plans for Glendale's dale's great three-day historical fiesta and pageant, to be held during September. Presidents of all civic organizations and one member from each board of directors will be included in the gathering, which will take place at the offices of Twining & Myers, realtors, at 108 West Colorado street. Appointment of a large staff of committee chairmen, into whose hands will be placed the task of organizing the fiesta celebration, will be made at the meeting, and a general chairman elected. It is planned to include in the working organization behind the fiesta representatives of every club and society in Glendale so that city-wide effort will be exerted in making the affair a success. The meeting will commence promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

LEAVES FOR CAMP

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 27.—Business Manager Roy Mack of the Portland Beavers left here today to join Manager Duffy Lewis in San Francisco preparatory to the opening of training camp at San Jose Sunday. Pitchers and catchers will report Sunday, the rest of the squad to report March 6. Jim Poole, first baseman, and Johnny Jones, shortstop, are still on the holdout list. Ray Rohwer, slugging outfielder, has signed his contract. Outfielder Jones has been sent to Augusta, Ga., on option.

OREGON VICTORS

MOSCOW, Idaho, Feb. 27.—Fighting desperately, Oregon's fast basketball team defeated Idaho here last night 26 to 24 and will go into a tie with the Oregon Aggies for Pacific Coast conference honors in the northern section if Washington is downed Saturday night at Seattle.

CHICAGO WHEAT
By International News Service

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Grains turned choppy in the late hours of trading today and closed irregular. Wheat finished 1 to 2 5-8 up. Corn closed unchanged to 1-2c higher. Oats finished 1-4 to 1-2 off. Provisions closed lower despite the advance in hogs.

SUNLAND NOTES

SUNLAND, Feb. 27.—Street lights and a Chamber of Commerce building for Sunland are two subjects occupying the attention of the Valley Center Improvement league. A committee has been appointed to make recommendations for locating new street lights. The league favors immediate construction of a building to house the Chamber of Commerce. Several sites have been offered, but the majority seem to favor the first offer of a lot in Sunland Park, a new tract on the market, located near the business district.

A committee has been appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to assist other valley organizations in solving the flood control problems. Secretary John Abernathy reported a balance of eighty dollars in the treasury at the last meeting.

The recent celebration of the birthday anniversary of the Parent-Teacher association was well attended. A program was given, afternoon and evening, which was made up of clever tableaux and musical numbers by the school pupils dressed in Washington and Lincoln costumes. A supper was served in the evening and a birthday cake sold for the benefit of the national Parent-Teacher association fund. In the evening musical selections by the Lewis Sisters trio were given in addition to the pupils' program.

The Monte Vista Woman's club has voted to join the Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. J. F. McCormack of the Hollenbeck Park Ebell club, Los Angeles, was a speaker at a recent meeting and explained the advantages of membership in the federation. The Monte Vista club has made plans for co-operating with other Sunland and Tujunga organizations in improving the appearance of property during clean-up week, which begins tomorrow under the auspices of the Tujunga Kiwanis club.

A birthday celebration in honor of Abraham Lincoln was held at the Home for the Aged, Volunteers of America. Readings and reminiscences by tenants of the home who were living during Lincoln's time furnished entertainment.

Pass-Key Burglars In $11 Raid In Glendale

Burglars last night entered the home of F. W. Corey of 110 East Chestnut street, using a pass-key, and stole $11 in cash, it was reported to Glendale police headquarters, today.

A pocketbook containing $25 was stolen yesterday afternoon from a car belonging to Mrs. W. B. Leavens of 328½ North Howard street, while it was parked on Hawthorne street.

D. M. Forsyth of 135 North Maryland avenue reported theft of a .38-caliber revolver and cartridge belt from his trunk at that address.

PETITIONERS ASK TRUCK ROAD BUILT

L. A. City Council Urged To Develop Link From Flower to Los Feliz

A 100 per cent petition for development of the proposed River Truck highway was filed yesterday with the Los Angeles City Council, according to Chairman T. W. Watson of the Glendale City Planning commission. The petitioning property owners ask that the council have deeds prepared and surveys made without delay for this new thoroughfare.

The River Truck boulevard will parallel the east side of the Los Angeles river, running from Flower street on the north to Los Feliz road on the south. Riverside drive, on the west side of the river, will parallel the River Truck highway, Mr. Watson said.

Aircraft Is Key To Next War Rear-Admiral Says

ger lies in the planes that can be brought over by an enemy fleet.

"In event of a war with Japan, the United States would be fortunate if half of our battleships got back to San Francisco. By control of the air, a Japanese fleet could drive away an American fleet," Sims declared.

If Japan, with twelve airplane carriers and other auxiliary craft, but no battleships, should attack Hawaii, "Japan would have an advantage over our battle fleet and our one airplane carrier, Langley," Sims said. He predicted the Japanese could bomb down the Hawaiian defense, destroy the defending aircraft and escape without being seen by the army forces on the island.

Sims opposed a unified air service.

"The air force operating with the navy should be manned by competent naval officers, who have lived their lives in the navy," said Sims.

Sims placed great emphasis upon submarines.

"No fleet can exist in the face of submarines unless it is running at full speed and is zig-zagging.

"The nation that commands the air over a land or a sea force will bring either to submission. I think the navy, therefore, should build light airplane carriers, instead of cruisers," he said.

Sims assailed "conservatism" in Congress.

"It is a curious thing," he said, "but you can't change the minds of the navy conservatives. You have to shed their blood before they change, or they'll hang on until some disaster comes along.

"With an adequate air and submarine force, no nation will bother us."

Unification of the air force in England has destroyed its effectiveness, he said.

Widening of Wilson Is Now Being Considered

local business street carrying through traffic should be not less than 100 feet wide, with a seventy-two foot roadway from curb to curb.

Eighty Feet Wide

In view of these declarations of Mr. Bartholomew, Chairman Watson of the City Planning commission told members of the Wilson Avenue Improvement association this morning that he is convinced Wilson avenue should be widened to eighty feet to west city limits, with a uniform roadway of fifty-six feet.

"Ultimately Wilson avenue will become commercial its entire length," he said. "At present it is zoned commercial between Glendale and Central avenues. The only effective way to prevent further building on that portion of the street which must be dedicated for widening is to immediately institute condemnation proceedings.

"Such a move would involve no immediate expenditure on the part of Wilson avenue property owners," he went on to say, "yet would insure the ultimate widening of this street. In future it is going to be the policy of the City Planning commission to deny setback lines nearer than forty feet from the center of any street, as we are looking ahead to the time when every street in Glendale will be at least eighty feet wide."

Wilson avenue at the present time varies in width from thirty-six to forty feet, from curb to curb, it was pointed out, constituting a thoroughfare so narrow as not only to retard traffic but to endanger the lives of motorists and pedestrians.

The Wilson Avenue Improvement association intends to correct this situation without delay and, in the words of President Woodard, "bring this important east and west thoroughfare into its own, as one of the finest business and apartment house streets in Glendale."

The Chinese have a code of eight salutations, to be used in accordance with the rank and position of the person greeted.

TUJUNGA NOTES

TUJUNGA, Feb. 27.—Informal disclussion of plans for the best way in which to insure perfect drainage of flood waters from Haines canyon was recently indulged in by leading Tujunga citizens after they had inspected the canyon sites where $1000,000 flood control improvements will be made by the county. Cement sluice-ways and pile-lined canals were suggested to carry off the storm waters from the canyon to the Big Tujunga wash. This inspection and discussion was at the request of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce in anticipation of a request from the county flood control officials for recommendations of plans.

Surveyors have been at work in the Tujunga section getting data for a federal topographical map.

Mrs. Leon Harvey was given a "welcome home" party, on her return from New York, by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Scribner. Radio music, games and refreshments were enjoyed. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Kellar; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hill, Ned Hill, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Gilmer, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll W. Parcher, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scribner, Mrs. William Gale, Billy Swizer, Miss Margaret Clark, Mrs. Van Essen.

Miss Helen Byrnes, national organizer of J. O. C. classes, was a recent speaker at the Tujunga Methodist Community church. The J. O. C. class held a business meeting and banquet, February 17.

An employment office has been opened by the Haines Canyon Water company in their offices on Sunset boulevard. The service will be maintained without charge. Miss Osgood will be in charge of the employment department.

A. Terrill Will Talk At Church Dinner Mar. 11

Arthur Terrill, teacher at the California Institute of Technology of Pasadena and formerly a teacher of mining engineering in China, will be speaker at the monthly church night dinner of the Congregational church to be held on March 11.

Rev. H. H. Moon Gives First Sermon Sunday

Rev. R. H. Moon, recently appointed pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle church, Louise and East Chestnut streets, will deliver his first sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Lord's supper will also be observed at that hour.

Another reason why there was less sex interest in the old days was because people stayed at home once in a while.

HERE IS THE BEST

Proof Of Values

Our 'MILLION DOLLAR VIEW LOTS" have been selling at a time when there has been practically no lot market. No "excitement plan" sale has been employed; no excursions, lunches, or "flights" for tourists. In fact, we didn't even take the buyers to the tract, and, stranger still—more often than otherwise, there was no one on the tract to show the lots, but—

PEOPLE WILL FIND BARGAINS THEMSELVES

Here is the REAL PROOF of the WONDERFUL VALUES we are offering: With only a few exceptions, the buyers have not only ALL been GLENDALE PEOPLE, but many were the REAL OLD-TIMERS—some the FIRST RESIDENTS of GLENDALE. Though many had seen the time when they could have purchased the entire tract for $1650, still they have been glad of the opportunity to BUY NOW at

$1650 FOR A BIG 60-FT. LOT

And they have BOUGHT—not "been sold"—there's a big difference there. They—many of them—have gone to the tract alone and, without a salesman—"made their own arguments". They have known the property for years, that there is nothing more desirable for a home ANY PLACE, yet the few remaining lots are being sold at about HALF THE REAL VALUE. They will soon be gone—

NOTICE OF SALE OF FRANCHISE

Office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, California.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT SOUTHERN COUNTIES GAS COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA, a corporation, has made its application to the City Council of the City of Glendale for a grant to it, its successors and assigns of a franchise and privilege herein particularly described; that said City Council proposes to grant said franchise and privilege in accordance with the laws of the State of California, said franchise being particularly described as follows, to-wit:

A franchise to lay, construct, maintain, use and operate gas pipes in, under and along those certain streets, alleys, lanes, highways and public places in and of the said City of Glendale, described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the northerly boundary line of Lot 61, Tract No. 5717, as recorded in map book 64, page 45, Records of Los Angeles County, State of California, projected west to the easterly boundary line of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company's right-of-way; thence northwesterly along San Fernando Road to the northwesterly line of Grand View Avenue; thence southwesterly on Grand View Avenue to the southwesterly line of Flower Street; thence northwesterly on Flower Street to the northwesterly boundary of the City of Glendale, at the southeasterly line of Tract No. 5436, as recorded in map book 55, page 34, Records of the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

Beginning at the southeasterly boundary line of the City of Glendale, where Sonora Avenue intersects Flower Street; thence northwesterly on Flower Street to the northwesterly boundary line of the City of Glendale between Allen Avenue and Linden Avenue.

Together with the right to carry, transport and convey manufactured and/or natural gas in and through said pipes for light, heat and power purposes, together with the right to lay, construct, maintain and operate all such other apparatus and appliances in connection therewith as may be necessary to safely and efficiently operate, maintain and use said pipe lines.

Said franchise shall continue for a period of twenty-five (25) years from the date of granting same.

Said franchise is offered for sale upon the terms and conditions hereinafter contained and said grantee shall file with the City Clerk of the City of Glendale a written acceptance within thirty (30) days after passage of the ordinance granting same. The terms and conditions under which said franchise is offered for sale are as follows:

First: That the grantee or grantees of said franchise and privilege, his or their successors or assigns, shall, in good faith, commence work to lay and construct said pipe lines in a good and workmanlike manner within not more than four months from the granting of said franchise and privilege, and shall thereafter continuously prosecute said work diligently and in good faith, so as not to obstruct the use of the streets by the public or to cause inconvenience to the abutting property owners for an unreasonable length of time.

Second: That the grantee of said franchise, his, its or their successors or assigns, shall have the right to make all necessary excavations in any such streets and thoroughfares hereinbefore mentioned for the construction and repair of such pipe lines; provided that such right shall be subject to such regulations as are now or may hereafter be in force and in particular Ordinance No. 369 of the City of Glendale, adopted on the 29th day of January, 1920, and entitled, "An Ordinance Regulating the Making and Refilling of Excavations in Public Streets, Alleys, Sidewalks and Other Public Places, Repealing Sections 7, 8, 9 and 10 of Ordinance No. 21 and Repealing Ordinance 116."

Third: That no part of the pipes shall be laid not less than three (3) feet beneath the surface of the streets or alleys wherein laid and shall be located along a line first to be designated by the Street Superintendent of said City of Glendale. Where such pipes are to be laid under or across any street paved with macadam or concrete, the same shall be done so as not to disturb the foundation thereof by a tunnel or bore, or when this cannot be done, under a special permit from said Street Superintendent upon application therefor, such application to be accompanied by a drawing, specifications and explanation showing reasons therefor.

Fourth: That during the laying or repairing of any such pipes, any trench or excavations made for such purposes shall at night time, from sunset to sunrise, be barricaded and protected by lanterns placed at distances of not more than one hundred (100) feet apart along such trench or excavation, and also at all street and alley intersections, sufficient to protect the public.

Fifth: The pipe line constructed or maintained under the provisions of this franchise shall be constructed and maintained in accordance and conformity with all of the ordinances, rules and regulations now in force, or that may hereafter be adopted and prescribed by the Council of said City of Glendale.

Sixth: That the work of laying and repairing such pipes or other appliances shall be conducted with the least possible hindrance to the use of said streets for the purpose of travel, and as soon as the laying or repairing of any pipes or appliances is completed, all portions of the streets which have been excavated or otherwise injured thereby shall be placed in as good condition as the same were before the laying of such pipes, and to the satisfaction of the Street Superintendent of said City. That any damage or injury suffered by any person by reason of any excavation being improperly guarded during said work shall be borne by the grantee of said franchise, his or its successors or assigns.

Seventh: That the City of Glendale reserves the right to change the grade of any street or portion thereof over which said franchise shall be granted, and the grantee of said franchise, his or its successors or assigns, shall at once change the location of all pipes and other appliances laid under said franchise, so as to conform to said change of grade. That if any portion of any of said streets shall be damaged by reason of leaks in any pipe laid under said franchise, the grantee of such franchise, his or its successors, shall at his, its or their expense, repair any such damage and put said street in as good condition as before such leak, to the satisfaction of the Street Superintendent of said City.

Eighth: That if the grantee of said franchise, his, its or their successors or assigns, shall fail to comply with any of the written instructions of the City Council or the same restrictions as hereinbefore provided, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor and be struck off, sold and awarded; and in case said party shall fail to deposit with the Clerk of the City of Glendale the remaining ninety per cent (90%) of his bid within twenty-four (24) hours after its acceptance, the award to it of said franchise shall be set aside and the deposit theretofore made by it shall be forfeited, and no further proceedings for a sale of said franchise shall be had, unless the same shall be re-advertised and again offered for sale in the manner hereinbefore provided.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the successful bidder for such franchise or privilege struck off, sold or awarded to him or it shall file, and keep on file, a bond running to the City of Glendale with at least two good and sufficient sureties to be approved by said City Council, in the penal sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00), conditioned that such bidder shall well and truly observe, fulfill and perform each and every term and condition of such franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of such bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages, and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. Said bond shall be filed with said City Council within five (5) days after the said franchise is awarded, and upon the filing and approval of such bond, the said franchise shall by said City Council, be granted to the person, firm or corporation to whom it has been struck off, sold or awarded, and in case said bond shall not be so filed, the award of said franchise shall be set aside, and any money paid therefor shall be forfeited.

The City Council hereby expressly reserves the right to reject any or all bids for said franchise.

A. J. VAN WIE,
City Clerk of the City of Glendale, State of California.
Dated this 24th day of February, 1925.

CITY PRINTING

Street Superintendent of said City, with respect to the location of any portion of said system or pipes or pipe lines, or the repair of any damage to said streets or thoroughfares, within ten (10) days after the service of written notice upon said grantee, his, its or their successors or assigns, requiring compliance therewith, then said City Council or Street Superintendent may immediately do whatever work is necessary to carry out said instructions at the cost and expense of said grantee, his, its or their successors or assigns, which costs, by the acceptance of said franchise, said grantee, his, its or their successors or assigns, agree to pay upon demand.

Ninth: That the said grantee or its successors or assigns shall, during the life of said franchise, pay to the City of Glendale, in lawful money of the United States, two per cent of the gross annual receipts of such grantee, its successors or assigns, arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise; provided, however, that no percentage shall be paid for the first five (5) years succeeding the date of this franchise.

It shall be the duty of the grantee of said franchise and its successors or assigns to file with the Clerk of the City of Glendale at the expiration of one year after said period of five (5) years, and at the expiration of each and every year thereafter, a statement verified by the oath of said grantee or its successors or assigns, or by the oath of the manager or other authorized officer of said grantee, or its successors or assigns, showing in detail the total gross earnings collected or received by said grantee or its successors or assigns during the preceding twelve (12) months for the use, sale, rental or furnishing of manufactured and/or natural gas for light, heat, power or any other purpose whatsoever from any part of the system for the construction and operation of which said franchise is granted, and within ten (10) days after the time for filing the aforesaid statement it shall be the duty of said grantee, its successors or assigns, to pay to the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale the aggregate sum of said percentage upon the amount of the gross annual receipts arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise, and if the amount paid is incorrect in the judgment of the City Council, it may order the payment of such additional sum as it may find due hereunder, and if not paid the same may be collected by suit. Any neglect, omission or refusal by said grantee or its successors or assigns to file said verified statement or to pay said percentage of the said gross annual receipts at the time or in the manner hereinbefore provided shall work a forfeiture of said franchise and of all the rights thereunder to the City of Glendale.

Tenth: That whenever any portion of the territory covered by said franchise shall be annexed to or otherwise become a part of any other municipal corporation or of the County of Los Angeles, or any other county, the rights reserved under said franchise to the City of Glendale or any officer thereof shall inure to the benefit of such municipal corporation or county and its appropriate officers.

Eleventh: That the said grantee or its successors or assigns shall not sell, transfer or assign said franchise or any of the rights or privileges granted thereby, except by a duly executed instrument in writing filed in the office of the Clerk of the City of Glendale; and provided further, that nothing in said franchise contained shall be construed to grant to said grantee or its successors or assigns any right to sell, transfer or assign said franchise or any of the rights and privileges thereby granted, except in the manner aforesaid.

Twelfth: That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise shall work a forfeiture thereof and the said City, by its City Council, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited and may exclude said grantee or its successors or assigns from further use of the highways of said City under said franchise; and the said grantee or its successors or assigns shall thereupon surrender, upon demand by appropriate instrument in writing, all rights in and to the same, and said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

The grant of said franchise shall be effective only upon the further condition that the grantee shall, at all times during the life of said franchise, keep on file with the City Council a bond running to said City of Glendale in the penal sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00), with at least two sureties to be approved by said City Council, conditioned upon said bidder well and truly observing, fulfilling and performing each and every term and condition of said franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of said bond the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties on said bond; provided, however, that if said bond shall not be so filed, the award of said franchise shall be set aside and the money paid therefor shall be forfeited, and said franchise shall be, in the discretion of the City Council, re-advertised and again offered for sale in the same manner and under the same restrictions as herein provided. If said bond be not so filed and kept on file, said franchise shall be void and of no effect, and any money paid therefor or thereunder shall be forfeited.

Said franchise shall be granted on the condition that all expenses of sale and of advertising said franchise shall be paid by the successful bidder, and unless so paid said franchise shall be forfeited.

NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN that sealed bids in writing will be received for said franchise up to ten o'clock a. m. on the 31st day of March, 1925, and at the time above mentioned, and in the Council room of the City Council of the City of Glendale, any and all sealed bids will be opened; that all bids must be for the payment of a stated sum in gold coin of the United States, and that the said franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation who makes the highest cash bid therefor provided only that at the time of the opening of said bids any responsible person, firm or corporation present or represented may bid for said franchise or privilege a sum of not less than ten per cent (10%) above the highest sealed bid therefor, and said bid so made may be raised not less than ten per cent (10%) by any other responsible bidder, and said bidding may so continue until finally said franchise shall be struck off, sold and awarded to the highest bidder therefor in gold coin of the United States by said City Council.

That each sealed bid shall be accompanied with cash or a certified check payable to the Treasurer of the City of Glendale for the full amount of such bid, and no sealed bid shall be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith, and the successful bidder shall deposit at least ten per cent (10%) of the amount of his bid with the Clerk of the City of Glendale before the franchise shall be struck off to him. If the successful bidder shall fail to make such deposit immediately, then and in that case his bid shall not be received and shall be considered as void, and the said franchise shall then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit as above mentioned. Said procedure shall be had until said franchise is struck off, sold and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least ten per cent (10%) of the amount of his bid therefor, as herein provided.

That the successful bidder shall deposit with the Clerk of the City of Glendale within twenty-four (24) hours after the acceptance of his bid the remaining ninety per cent (90%) of the amount thereof, and, in case he or it shall fail to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made shall be forfeited and the said award of said franchise shall be void, and the said franchise shall then and there by said City Council, in the same manner and under the

ELKS WAITING ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Dockery, For Exalted Ruler, Without Opposition, Only 3 Contests

With the nominations closed, only three contests loom in the election of new officers of Glendale Elks lodge scheduled for next Monday night. Gerald D. Dockerey is the only candidate for exalted ruler to fill the chair now occupied by Earl S. Patterson.

Interest centers around the office of esteemed leading knight sought by J. Murray Durham and James F. McBryde. For the office of esteemed lecturing knight there is also a contest between Gus H. Pulliam and Dr. John Anderson. The only other office for which more than one candidate has been nominated is that of trustee for the three-year term. Here A. R. Hildreth and Fred J. Fish are both up for election.

List of Candidates

Following is a complete list of candidates and the offices for which they are standing in the Elk election next Monday night:

Exalted ruler: Gerald D. Dockerey.

Esteemed leading knight: J. Murray Durham, James F. McBryde.

Esteemed loyal knight: Harold N. Nuzum.

Esteemed lecturing knight: Gus H. Pulliam, Dr. John Anderson.

Secretary: Walter W. Jones.

Treasurer: Herman Nelson.

Tilers: Dr. Norman C. Paine and Clifford J. Larson.

Trustee (three years): A. R. Hildreth, Fred J. Fish.

Delegates to Grand Lodge: Earl S. Patterson.

Alternate delegate: Peter L. Ferry.

There were three candidates originally nominated for the three year trusteeship. Len C. Davis withdrew his name before nominations were closed, however.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. William Bode of 316 East Fairview avenue, announce the birth of a daughter this morning, Friday, February 27, 1925, at Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

QUITS BANK WORK TO JOIN COMPANY

Ray E. Berry to Be Secretary Magnetic Ice Co., New Sherman Firm

Ray E. Berry, prominent in Glendale banking circles for the past five years, has resigned his position as chief teller of the Glendale avenue branch of the Pacific Southwest Trust & Savings bank to become secretary and treasurer of the Magnetic Ice Co., of Sherman. The resignation becomes effective tomorrow.

The ice company, a corporation recently organized by a group of business men of the San Fernando valley, will begin operations on Monday. G. Frederick Jones of La Crescenta is president and general manager. Ice will be manufactured from Magnetic spring water only, piped directly from the Sherman well to the plant located at 840 Palm avenue, Sherman. Construction of the building and installation of the equipment has just been completed. The plant has an initial capacity of thirty tons a day.

Berry has been engaged in banking for seventeen years. During his five years with the Pacific Southwest Trust & Savings bank he has occupied a number of important positions, and is still a stockholder. He will continue to reside in Glendale.

LIONS ROAR WHEN SCORING GOLFERS

Adding Machine Rushed Into Action To Decide On Trophy Winner

Members of the Glendale and Los Angeles Lions' clubs roared in beast-like fashion on the Oakmont Country club golf course yesterday afternoon for a silver trophy was at stake. So many shaggy-maned luncheon club members proved to be golfers, however, that work of tabulating scores was not completed today and Ted S. Beggs, Dr. J. E. Eckles and Albert D. Pearce, the golf committeemen, were unable to announce results.

The cup has been offered as a challenge trophy for Southern California Lions' clubs by the Glendale den. The first contest was staged yesterday when the locals met members of the Los Angeles club. Twenty-six golfers took part in the tournament.

After the expert accountants get through with the adding machines and the score cards, it is possible that the results will be given publicity, especially if it is proved conclusively that the Glendale Lions won. Otherwise—well, time will tell.

SPECIAL MUSIC IN COMMUNITY SING

Vocal, Violin Selections Are Features Of Program At Central School

Vocal and violin solos composed the special music presented at the Community Sing in the Central avenue school last night, Milford C. Jackson, of the Glendale Choral club, rendering vocal numbers and Henry Raphael, of the Symphony orchestra, giving three violin selections. The latter played "Kuyawiak" (H. Wieniawski); "Gavotte" (Gossec); "Elegy" (Massenet). He was accompanied by Mrs. Gertrude Erb.

Mr. Jackson's songs included "Sunset" (Dudley Beck); "Homing" (Del Riego); "Moonlight Song" (Cadman); "Heart Bowed Down" (Balfe); "Little Bit of Honey" (Bond); "Do Not Go, My Love" (Hageman). May Orcutt was his accompanist.

Group singing occupied the remainder of the evening, which was sponsored by Glendale Community Service. J. Arthur Myers directed.

We would have the measure of Adam's repentance if we knew how many apple trees he planted after leaving the garden.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Bridge Party

Mrs. R. D. Stinson of 1127 North Adams place was hostess yesterday afternoon at a bridge party. Carnations were used in decoration. Two tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Morton of Montreal, and Mrs. Everett Smith of Glendale. Refreshments were served at the card tables at the close of the games. Guests were: Mesdames A. B. Bonham, A. J. Van Wie, Everett Smith and Virginia Farr and Miss Mowat of Glendale, Mrs. R. E. Liffiton of Los Angeles and Mrs. Morton of Montreal.

Mrs. Mary Eisenbarth of Pasadena, Y. L. I. deputy, was present at the meeting of Glendale Y. L. I. last night at the Knights of Columbus clubhouse, 330 East Lomita avenue. Miss Henrietta Meck, president, presided at the meeting, when a report of the card party held Tuesday night was given by Miss Henrietta Farrow.

INAUGURATION TO DROP ALL COLORING

Coolidge Insists Upon As Little Ceremony As May Be Possible

By ROBERT T. SMALL
Special Correspondent to The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1925.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Despite all discouragements, some fifteen governors of sovereign states have signified their intention of attending the inauguration of President Coolidge, thereby showing how the people of the country cling to the old idea of an inaugural ceremony.

Washingtonians have received thousands of letters from friends, asking their advice about coming to the capital March 4 and almost invariably the reply has gone back that the trip would be a waste of money so far as any expected spectacle is concerned.

The president has put a further damper on the proceedings by announcing he will make his inaugural speech as brief as possible, and when one visualizes what Mr. Coolidge means by "brief" it is easy to calculate his address will be one of the briefest in history.

So far as "color" is concerned, inauguration day seems doomed for all time. Washington fears that no succeeding president will have the temerity to allow a "show" after the severe simplicity demanded by the present occupant of the White House.

Mr. Coolidge has not forgotten that he first took the oath of office as president by the light of a kerosene lamp, his father officiating as the notary public. He sees no reason why there should be any great "fuss and feathers" over the "second offense" which occurs on March 4.

In this respect, however, Mr. Coolidge feels he is merely following in the footsteps of the man he succeeded in the presidency.

Harding's Wish

Mr. Harding's wishes as to the inaugural ceremony were recalled at the White House today by the discovery of the telegram he sent from Marion on January 12, 1921, to Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, who was chairman of the congressional joint committee in charge of the inauguration. In that telegram Mr. Harding said:

"Your telegram received. I am deeply grateful to your committee for its action in arranging for the simplest possible program for the inaugural ceremony. It is wholly pleasing to me to take the oath of office in the senate chamber if such is the decision of your committee. However, I am not unaware of a natural and becoming popular interest in a president-elect assuming his official obligations and I would gladly have the simple ceremony on the east porch of the capitol, weather permitting, provided it can be arranged amid such facilities as are afforded without special construction for the occasion.

"I do not forget that during the late campaign which culminated in my election I spoke frequently to the people from the front porch of my home, and they were courteous enough to stand and hear me amid accommodation less comfortable than the capitol steps and plaza afford. If this seems impractical to your committee, it deserves no further consideration. The abandonment of public expenditure and the end to all suggestion of individual outlay have put an end to my own concern and the mere detail of oath taking which your committee seems best will meet with my ready assent.

"Signature,
"WARREN G. HARDING"

Simplicity

Acting on this authorization, the committee erected the simplest possible speaking stand at the East front of the capitol and from that vantage point Mr. Harding read his inaugural address to a standing crowd which filled the capitol plaza. The same arrangements have been made for Mr. Coolidge, and, weather permitting, he will speak from the same spot, his voice being carried to the crowd by amplifiers and to the nation by the greatest "hook up" of Radio broadcasting stations ever attempted in this country.

If the weather be foul on March 4, Mr. Coolidge will take the oath of office in the Senate chamber, where General Chas. C. Dawes will previously have been sworn is as vice-president.

Sunday School Plans Discussed At Dinner

Workers of the Sunday school of First Congregational church held a dinner meeting last night at the church with Arthur Nixon, superintendent of religious education in charge. Plans for Sunday school work were discussed. Mrs. L. T. Rowley, chairman of ways and means for the Women's auxiliary had charge of the supper. Thirty teachers were present.

Elks Ready For Dance Tonight At Clubhouse

The monthly dance of Glendale lodge, No. 1289, B. P. O. E., will be held tonight at the Elks clubhouse, on East Colorado street. Winners of the blanket campaign which has been in progress will be announced. The public is invited.

COUNTRY FAIR PROVES BIG SUCCESS

Many Features To Attract Crowds; Picture Star Will Be Present

"Ye Country Fair" opened at the appointed time last night in the Fuller building at 219 North Brand boulevard, under the auspices of Glendale Music club. Reports this morning stated that the proceeds from the opening night give promise of greater success today and tomorrow.

Countless features were found at the various booths, where committees from the departments of the club were busy selling their wares to visitors.

Of special interest were the sale of tickets for the club concert next Tuesday night. There is a number with each ticket, entitling the holder to a chance on the beautiful doll given by Louise Dresser, well-known actress, and on the silver basket. These prizes will be awarded tomorrow night at 9 o'clock.

Screen Star Coming

All kinds of tempting cooked food is on sale today and will be offered tonight, tomorrow and tomorrow night. Tonight and tomorrow night bushel baskets of assorted groceries will be given to the lucky persons at the Piggly Wiggly booth.

Patsy Ruth Miller, screen star, is to arrive in Glendale at 9 o'clock tomorrow night. She will be escorted up Brand boulevard by the drum and bugle corps and will award the prizes at the fair. No admission is being charged at the fair.

SENATE TO HEAR PRIVATE SCHOOLS

Public Hearing At Capitol Monday When Murphy Bill Comes Up

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Trade schools, commercial colleges and other private institutions will be given a public hearing before the Senate education committee on Thursday night, March 12, when Senator Daniel Murphy's bill regulating such schools will be considered. The hearing was granted at the request of Labor Commissioner Walter Mathewson.

The education committee has approved Senator Herbert Slater's bill that would place in the custody of school boards the student body funds mounting to many thousands of dollars in some instances.

Jones Bill Deferred

The Jones bill that would permit school boards to levy all of the dollar tax rate for maintenance, instead of 30 cents now allowed and 70 cents for building purposes, has been deferred for further consideration.

Attorney-General Webb's ruling on the wording of the budget thought unconstitutional by Controller Ray Riley, is expected by the assembly ways and means committee by tonight. A special committee on revenues and expenditures is digging up facts on state loans, to also report to the assembly body.

Senator H. C. Jones of the Senate judiciary committee has announced an open hearing the night of March 3 on the Murphy-Harris bill providing for a jury trial in contempt cases, said to be muchly desired legislation.

Scalding Chickens

In the Assembly William Jost has introduced a bill which would prevent the scalding of chickens offered for sale by markets, it being alleged that the hot water removes signs of tuberculosis and other diseases against whch pure food laws are directed.

The special investigating committee looking into the alleged Chinese herb bill extortion plot will not hold star chamber sessions, despite the desire of George Cleveland's motion to that effect. Sidney Graves, Los Angeles lawyer and chairman of the committee, does not believe there will be any reflection on the Legislature by making the hearings public. They start next Monday afternoon.

It is going to cost the state $1000 to delve into the lobbyists' scheme to collect $10,000 from the Chinamen for the avowed purpose of defeating Assemblyman Edward J. Smith's bill which would force the herbalists to submit their formulas to health authorities.

Self-Respect Is Urged In Sermon By Brown

will always come to the surface, so while you are young make a determination that will shape your destiny. Pray God to give us men and women who can hold their heads above the clouds."

Tells About Daniel

Mr. Brown based his sermon on the sixth chapter of the book of Daniel, devoting the greater part of his discourse to the story of the prophet's captivity when Jerusalem was ransacked by the army of King Nebuchadnezzar, and his refusal to eat the meat and wine offered by the king. The meat and wine were against the law of Daniel's people; they were temptations which he was strong enough to overcome, even in the den of vicious lions.

"Daniel had religion in his heart rather than in his head," the preacher said. "I like to see men and women get religion in their hearts."

The evangelist then launched into a plea for a truer Christian spirit among the young people, not only in the home, but at all times, no matter where they are.

"Keep the window up and your faces toward Jerusalem," implored Mr. Brown in closing.

This morning at 10 o'clock Mr. Brown preached his final sermon on "The Spirit-Filled Life."
